McNamara Points To Nation's Great Military Strength

Backs Arms Support To U.S. Allies

Defense Secretary Will Face Quizzing On Conduct Of War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today the nation's military strength is so great that it has been able to commit 325,000 men to the Viet Nam war without calling up Reservists or controlling the economy.

"No other nation in history has ever been so strong," McNamara said.

"In history, never has any other nation—and never has the United States — carried such great military strength with so little burden on its society."

McNamara made only brief mention of Viet Nam and Southeast Asia in a statement to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. He devoted the bulk of his statement to arguments in support of the administration's $917-million military aid program to allies and friends around the world.

But the defense secretary was certain to face tough questioning on Viet Nam policy from members of the committee who have been critical of the administration's conduct of the war.

McNamara's appearance came a day after Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford "went pretty far" when Ford charged the administration with "shocking mismanagement" of the war.

"In what respect is it shocking?" Dirksen asked at a news conference Tuesday. "Who are the shockers?" Dirksen also said: "You don't demean the chief magistrate of your country at a time like this when the war is on. You stand up to be counted."

Ford had no comment on Dirksen's statements, but told a newsman he thinks "we've got McNamara on the run."

McNamara did not elaborate in his testimony on the 325,000 figure. But he evidently meant the 240,000 U.S. servicemen in Viet Nam, some 60,000 with 7th Fleet ships operating off Viet Nam, some 13,000 in Thailand and thousands of others on Guam where B52 bombers are stationed.

U.S. Planes Again Raid North Viet

Navy Bombers Hit Bridge 10 Miles From Chief Port

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Navy bombers edged closer to Haiphong Tuesday in the third straight day of raids on North Viet Nam's vital Red River Delta, blasting a railroad bridge 10 miles north of the country's chief port. A U.S. spokesman said one span of the bridge was destroyed.

Four Soviet-built surface-to-air missiles were fired at the attackers but missed their marks, the spokesman reported today.

Three other U.S. jets were lost elsewhere over North Viet Nam in the past 24 hours, raising the number of American planes shot down since the raids began 15 months ago to 213. One of the pilots was rescued in a blaze of enemy fire. The other two were presumed captured or dead.

In the south, Viet Cong raiders damaged two big U.S. Air Force Hercules troop transports in a hit-and-run attack on a small airfield in the central highlands but caused no casualties. Officials said the four-engine planes could be repaired.

Allied forces reported little other contact with the Communists as the lull in the ground war continued. Only South Korean forces reported a brush of any significance, in a sweep on the central coast.

The raid near Haiphong followed up an attack by Navy bombers on the Uong Bi power plant 14 miles northeast of the city Monday night. On Sunday Air Force fighter-bombers hit two missile sites, 15 and 17 miles south of Hanoi, and knocked out a major highway bridge linking Haiphong and Hanoi, 60 miles to the west.

A Real Headache

Wellsville Hunts Source Of Odors

Finding the source of odors from sewer openings in homes in the area of 17th and Commerce Sts., Wellsville, is proving a major problem for the fire department.

Fire Chief Robert Lewis explained to City Council Tuesday night the steps that have been taken to trace the odors that have plagued home owners in the area for several weeks.

Some seven to eight homes in a three-to-four-block area are affected at present, the chief commented, pointing out that at other times the odors have turned up in homes and buildings below 20th St.

LEWIS SAID no cause has been found and virtually every means at his disposal has been exhausted.

The Ohio Valley Gas Co.'s testing equipment also has been used. The odor is not natural gas, but rather a petroleum product, Lewis reported. When the tests show the fumes or odor present in the sewer in the home, nothing can be found in the main line in the street.

When it is found in the main line, nothing can be recorded in the homes. "There is no rhyme nor reason to the odors," Lewis said.

Service stations have been checked and none seems to have any leaking gasoline tanks. Checks first were made with stick measurements. Now mercury pressure testing devices are being used. Three stations have been checked and two more are to be completed.

Lewis said if sewage systems in the homes are properly trapped and vented, there should be no problem, but conceded this doesn't solve the mystery of the present odors.

At times the odors will occur in a home in the middle of the night, but a neighboring house

Speaks At Meeting In Turkey

Rusk Tells CENTO It's Still Needed Due To Reds

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Central Treaty Organization nations today their alliance is still needed because the Communists have not renounced world revolution.

Later Rusk was met by 200 booing students as he was entering a luncheon for CENTO foreign ministers.

Rusk turned to watch as police scuffled with the demonstrators and arrested several. Police broke up an anti-American demonstration by leftist students Tuesday on Rusk's arrival and arrested 73.

"Although they differ among themselves, our adversaries have not renounced the Communist world revolution," Rusk said. "They are bent on destroying the type of world community framed in the charter of the United Nations.

"Indeed, some Communist leaders openly advocate the use of force for this purpose, as we have learned through bitter experience in Southeast Asia."

Rusk spoke at the opening session of a two-day conference of CENTO foreign ministers. Britain, Turkey, Iran and Pakistan are full members of the 11-year-old alliance. The United States is an associate member.

Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto of Pakistan did not attend the opening session, but Pakistani sources said he was scheduled to arrive this afternoon. They said he was delayed by the visit to Pakistan of King Faisal of Saudi Arabia.

Bhutto's failure to attend last year's CENTO foreign ministers' meeting in Iran was interpreted at the time as a show of disapproval of Pakistan's Western allies because of the arms they furnished India. Pakistan has received arms and moral support from Communist China in its quarrel with India over Kashmir, but Pakistan's relations with the West, and particularly the United States, have improved in the past year.

British Foreign Minister Michael Stewart told the conference that while the political and military situation has altered somewhat since CENTO was established, "the emphasis has moved from crude and direct threats of military aggression to political pressure and subversion."

"The threat in this form may have become more dangerous over the last year," he said. "This is something on which we need to maintain our vigilance."

Stewart said although the India-Pakistan quarrel over Kashmir did not involve CENTO directly, it is a matter of deep concern to "all of us who have the stability and peace of the Indian subcontinent at heart and who are bound by so many ties to both countries there."

Youth Corps Spurred In Trouble Spots

Summer Programs Will Be Reduced In Other Sections

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Neighborhood Youth Corps, one of President Johnson's leading weapons in the war against teen-age lawlessness, is beefing up its summer programs in potential big city trouble spots.

To do it, it's cutting back some programs elsewhere.

Officials indicated in interviews today that projects in some predominantly Negro, low-income areas such as Watts and Harlem will be increased by 50 per cent or more.

Over-all plans still are tentative but the Job Corps expects to take 190,000 teen-agers off the streets this summer and put them to work — 50,000 more than a year ago.

The program was given a presidential boost last week when Johnson ordered the corps to extend its summer program to an additional 25,000 boys and girls as part of the government's youth opportunity program.

But getting more spots to fill won't solve all the problems, sources said. For example, at the time of the Watts riots in Los Angeles last summer more than 1,000 jobs were authorized but unfilled.

"Part of the program is getting jobs and part is getting them filled," said one Job Corps aide.

After Sacking, Burning

Students Occupy China Consulate

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian students have occupied Communist China's deserted consulate in Jakarta after ransacking it again.

More than 100 members of the anti-Communist student organization Kami took over the building Tuesday, burned remnants of furniture and bundles of papers in the yard and painted anti-Chinese slogans on the walls.

They said the Jakarta military command had given them permission to use the consulate as a headquarters.

The Chinese left only servants in the building after a student mob sacked it for the first time a month ago. The students said the servants offered no resistance.

The seizure of the consulate building was the second anti-Chinese action in the Indonesian capital in four days. About 2,000 Indonesians of Chinese descent ransacked the Chinese Embassy in another part of the city last Friday. The attack brought a stiff protest from Peking.

Strong anti-Communist and anti-Chinese sentiments have swept Indonesia since the pro-Peking Indonesian Communist party backed an unsuccessful coup attempt last Oct. 1. Peking was accused of supplying arms to some of the Communist rebels.

Foreign Minister Adam Malik said "an excess of the people's wrath" was responsible for the anti-Chinese outbursts and the strained relations between Indonesia and China, the official news agency Antara reported today.

"This is natural if we relate these excesses to the present situation of Indonesian society," Malik told representatives of Christian students.

Malik did not explain further but implied Communist activities in the country were responsible for the anti-Chinese outbursts.

U.S. Housing Action Begins At Wellsville

The first formal step toward obtaining federal low - cost housing for Wellsville was taken by Council during its meeting Tuesday night.

Two resolutions were adopted authorizing execution of a cooperation agreement between the city and the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority and directing application for the program and a preliminary loan.

Council authorized Mayor William Daugherty to enter into the agreement with the authority for the project, to consist of approximately 135 dwelling units.

The mayor will meet with the authority to work out details. Wayne Rose, Council clerk, was instructed to attend the meeting to attest to the signing of the agreement and to fix the official seal of the city to the necessary papers.

The second resolution stipulates there is a need for low-rent housing and authorizes the authority to submit an application to the Public Housing Administration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, for financial assistance.

The 135 units are to be provided by new construction or by acquisition and rehabilitation of existing housing.

The loan application will be for $25,250 and will be chargable against the total cost of the dwelling units.

Allen Baldwin, Council president, announced the property committee will be in charge of investigating possible sites for the construction.

The committee includes Russell Keefer, George Lawton and John McGarey.

Specifications will be obtained to serve as a guide in the committee's work.

Officers To Continue St. Clair Speed Check

A radar speed check launched Tuesday will continue regularly on the newly - rebuilt section of outer St. Clair Ave. in response to frequent complaints of fast driving on the three - lane stretch, police warned today.

Three motorists cited yesterday afternoon drew fines of $10 and $7.50 costs each today from Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

They were listed as Mrs. Mary E. Cochran of 1020 Riverview St., Paul H. Kapp of St. Clair Ave. Ext. and Robert C. Daley of 20 E. Main St., Salineville. Each was accused of exceeding the 35-mile limit. Mrs. Cochran and Kapp were charged with driving 45 and Daley was accused of driving 42. All were cited shortly after 1 p. m. by Patrolman Charles A. Winters.

Commissioner Finley Quits Race In Hancock

James Finley, chairman of the Hancock County Court of Commissioners, has withdrawn as a candidate for re-election in the Hancock County primary May 10, it was announced today by Dan Grossi, circuit court clerk.

Finley resides at 108 Paul St., Weirton.

He was admitted to Weirton General Hospital April 6 for an undisclosed ailment and was reported "resting quietly" this morning by a hospital spokesman.

Dirksen Sees Victory For His Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen predicts victory in aSenate vote today on his reapportionment proposal aimed at skirting the Supreme Court's one man, one vote ruling. But opponents predict defeat for the proposal.

At stake is Dirksen's proposed constitutional amendment under which one house of a state legislature could be apportioned on the basis of geography and political subdivisions, in addition to population.

The high court ruled in 1964 that both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on a basis of population.

With a two-thirds majority needed for approval, Dirksen claimed he was going to win his long fight.

However, Senate backers of the court's decision said after a recheck of their forces they have the votes to block the proposed amendment.

Agreement was reached to vote two hours after the Senate's noon meeting hour.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, battled for a similar amendment last year. But after two weeks of Senate debate it fell seven votes short of the necessary two-thirds majority. The vote was 59 for and 37 against.

Further Testimony Heard In Crucible Stock Battle

CHICAGO (AP) — Testimony was to continue here this afternoon in a suit brought by minority stockholders in the Crucible Steel Co. of America seeking to postpone the annual meeting of the company scheduled for April 27.

The primary concern of testimony so far has been the trading of 900,000 shares of Crucible common stock during the first week of January of this year.

Tuesday, Joel Hunter, chairman of the board of Crucible, a steel specialty firm based in Pittsburgh, was on the stand.

Hunter said the unusually heavy trading in Crucible stock in January spurred the firm to a brief but fruitless hunt for merger partners.

He said on Jan. 7 he met with G. A. Stinson, president of the National Steel Co., relative to the possibility of merging the two firms. As to the feasibility of a study for a merger, Stinson said "no," according to Hunter.

Later, discussions were held with Robert Morris, president of the Wheeling Steel Corp. in the office of Norton Simon, president of Hunt Foods & Industries, Inc., at Los Angeles.

The conclusion was that a merger with Wheeling at that time was an "impossibility."

Simon's advice was sought concerning the Crucible stock situation. As a result, a finance committee was set up, with Simon as chairman with a $50,000-a-year salary.

Hunter said Simon was supposed to "Help us; tell us what to do."

The defense contended Simon's function was to buy enough shares of Crucible stock to keep Hunter in office.

Regents End Hearings For Master Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Board of Regents decided today against further public hearings on its master plan for higher education in Ohio, and plans to publish it in final form in June.

Earlier, state universities had been told a final draft of the plan would be issued this week and would be reviewed at the regent's May meeting.

"The board feels that we have done all that is necessary in the way of public hearings, and that all opinions have been heard on the provisions and issues raised in the plan," Chancellor John D. Millett said.

Juvenile Results In Fine; Earlier Arrest Clarified

The operator of the Win, Place and Show Club in the "Strip" on Route 30 between Chester and the Pennsylvania line was fined $100 and costs by Squire Harry Lytton of Newell Tuesday night for permitting a juvenile on the premises.

Identified as Jean Gillis, she was given a six-month jail sentence in the Hancock County jail, but Squire Lytton stipulated that the sentence will not be carried out if the violation is not repeated.

Last night's action followed an earlier hearing Monday in which Robert E. Nott, 18, of East Liverpool was fined $30 and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence by the squire.

Squire Lytton, in correcting an earlier report received from the Hancock County sheriff's office, said the fine in Nott's case was imposed for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and not for buying liquor for a minor. He said no liquor had been ordered or purchased. The sheriff's office this morning confirmed the corrected information.

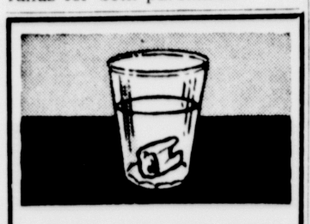
Lytton said the delinquency charge was based on the fact that Nott had taken a 17-year-old East Liverpool girl, a minor, in the Win, Place & Show Club.

Officials Ask Offers On Sweeper And Auto

Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey today issued a call for bids that will be opened at City Hall at noon on Monday, May 9, for purchase of a mechanized street sweeper and a new auto for the use of Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne.

Wlilshaw and Vodrey comprise the Board of Control, which will award the contract. In both instances, used equipment will be offered as a trade - in on the new vehicles — a 1960 Studebaker station wagon formerly used in the fire department and a 1962 model sweeper.

Bidders may file alternate offers covering sale of the equipment with or without a trade-in. Council already has provided funds for both purchases.



FAST ACTION CAN SAVE THIS TOOTH

Vigorous summer sports can result in injuries to the mouth and teeth. According to the American Dental Association, a tooth that has been knocked out can, in many cases, be reinserted and grow back again if no time is lost in seeking dental treatment.

Put the tooth in a glass of water, or wrap in a wet cloth; do not attempt to clean the tooth yourself. Your dentist will prepare and reinsert the tooth. After healing, the tooth will be secure and have a normal life span.

Harsha Suggests Plan For Check Against Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP)—William H. Harsha, R-Ohio, was one of two congressmen who Tuesday suggested that the federal highway program be slowed as an anti-inflation step—and was told a slowdown would cost lives.

Harsha and Rep. James C. Wright Jr., D-Tex., raised the possibility of holding back on increases in the highway budget at a House subcommittee meeting.

Alan S. Boyd, undersecretary of commerce for transportation, opposed the idea and told the subcommittee on roads that he hopes inflation is a "transient situation."

And Rex M. Whitton, federal highway administrator, said that completion of the interstate system would result in saving 8,000 lives now lost annually in traffic accidents so he "would like to see it completed as soon as possible."

The Commerce Department is asking $4.9 billion additional funds for intensive highway construction designed to cover spending through 1972.

GOP Can't Shun Swelling Negro Vote, Group Told

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Mayor Robert C. Henry of Springfield says Republicans cannot afford to ignore the swelling Negro vote in the North and the South.

Henry, a Republican and Springfield's first Negro mayor, told the Ohio Federation of Republican Women here Tuesday that "the party cannot afford any coalition which provides anything but a national basis and there simply can be no segregationist Republicans."

Gov. James A. Rhodes addressed the organization earlier, saying "We inherited a bankrupt state which was being sued for unpaid bills and we have paid the bills and balanced the budget."

He added that in the past three years, the state has saved $30 million and has gained a "$17 million surplus in the general fund without increasing taxes."

Also speaking was State Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, who told the organization that Republicans should be elected to the Ohio Legislature "to protect the reapportionment" that a GOP State Apportionment Board drew up and a federal court approved.

Decline Of A Supposition

It is going to take a few weeks to recover from the shock about South Viet Nam. The shock, of course, is hard evidence that a mid-summer election in that chaotic "republic" is going to be held at a time not of U.S. choosing and under circumstances not to U.S. liking. The United States is not going to win a vote of confidence.

The decline of the supposition that the United States would be able to handle the problem in South Viet Nam on its own terms has been gradual. But the result is definitive and final.

North Viet Nam destroyed one part of the supposition by not pleading for an armistice because it could not withstand the punishment of aerial bombing. North Viet Nam, like Great Britain, has shown no disposition to go to pieces under enemy bombing.

Another part of the supposition has been destroyed by the combativeness of the enemy ground forces in South Viet Nam. The supposition was that they would lose their morale as the United States killed more of them. The kill rate has been rising, but there is no evidence that morale has been sinking. The fighting spirit of the "enemy" is so far superior to that of the South Vietnamese that no comparison is possible.

Still another part of the supposition was that the United States, being in all ways admirable and worthy of high praise, would win admiration and praise from the South Vietnamese. Instead, many South Vietnamese have turned against Americans in much the same way they turned against the French.

They resent what appears to them to be intercession in a conflict they think of as their own. The so-called "Communists" of the Viet Cong and North Viet Nam are their own countrymen — and the same people who liberated them from French colonialism. Americans are Frenchmen who speak a different tongue.

The question now is what the United States will do if the midsummer election turns out unfavorably to its cause.

And the question is what the United States will do in the meantime — whether it will escalate the war still further by stepping up its bombing of North Viet Nam and beefing up its forces in South Viet Nam. If the real purpose is to build and maintain a major military base in Viet Nam, it presumably will be carried out regardless of the outcome of a midsummer election. That may have been nothing but a political front to conceal a military purpose.

Color Me Oscar

The buzzing sound heard throughout the land Tuesday came from millions of people discussing Monday night's Academy Awards program on television.

This is a curious situation—that television now can generate with a two-hour show featuring talented people who make motion pictures more interest than the movie-makers can generate for themselves.

The entertainment business goes in circles and the faster it moves the quicker it returns to where it started. Movies they're making today will be on television a few years from now. Television personalities being developed today will be in the movies a few years from now.

Remember when vaudeville died? Television now is full of vaudeville acts; more vaudevillians are working now than were working in the halcyon days. And remember how vaudeville teams made it big in the movies half a generation ago?

The movies, television, the legitimate theater, the amateur theater—they're all part of the same things-dramatic entertainment. Handling out awards is fine. It's great publicity. But the ultimate award is long-term success in show business, whether it's one part of the business or another part.

Someday, show business as a whole may get around to master awards for great performers who keep it going year in and year out and skip flash-in-the-pan performances that frequently are never duplicated.

Unidentified Flying Objects

It is bound to happen sometime. A so-so official in the U.S. Air Force assigned to special duty in the Unidentified Flying Objects division will see an unidentified flying object.

He will brush his eyes with the back of his hand. "Steady, boy," he will murmur to himself. "This is the moment you have dreaded. Look again. Maybe it won't be there."

But it's still there. It starts to move, slowly. He backs his car out of the garage and starts to track it, the way people used to track balloons when free ballooning was common.

"This is absurd," he tells himself. "I know the unidentified flying object I am following is a UFO. It is my job to tell gullible people that UFO's have no verifiable existence. The Air Force has to keep its wheels on the ground, so to speak. It must come down to earth. We do not say that people who see UFO's are imagining things. We merely say in the Air Force that until we experts have seen a UFO and verified its presence we are like the man who never saw an elephant. He conceded such a thing might exist, but he would not believe it unless he saw it with his own eyes and then he would doubt it."

Meanwhile, our hero continued to track the UFO. He never has been heard of since. He never went back to his job in the UFO division. He couldn't stand the thought of snapping off a salute to No. 1 and saying, "I want to report a UFO, sir. No sir, it did not have UFO written on it."

No one ever would have taken him seriously again as a down-to-earth desk pilot.

Let's All Agree

You have to admire the press agentry that catapulted Dr. Joshua Bierer, a British psychiatrist, from professional obscurity into public controversy at the beginning of a lecture tour here. It was near-genius to have him say before leaving London that Americans are the most worried people in the world and prosperity and women are the root of most of the trouble.

This will give U.S. interviewers a ready-made opener for Dr. Bierer at every stop in this country. Everybody will be egging him on to add insult to injury, on the supposition that anyone who doubts Americans are the happiest people in the world glorying in their affluence and bursting with pride about the most attractive women to be found anywhere in the universe must be cracked.

But for the sake of keeping discussion going, the doctor would be right and wrong. That is, he could be right about Americans being worried and the causes for it but wrong about thinking it's a bad thing.

It is because Americans are worried, because they are affluent and because American women are forever threatening to kick over the traces that this is a fine place to be.

What could be duller than living in a society where the people take in each other's washings, with nothing to go and come on, with women beaten down into lifelong apathy and men not giving a whoop about anything? Even if ignorance were bliss, that would be good about that kind of bliss?

Let's all agree we're worried, affluent and our women are the go-go gals of all history. As for Dr. Bierer, let's agree he owes his press agent a fat fee.

There's Little Hope

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

In Washington a sudden burst of words sometimes has a new and sunny and even hopeful look, like fresh flowers ready to bloom.

Then suddenly you remember something, something that's been said, and the new words lose their newness, hope looks less real, the bloom seems a little jaded, and you begin to fear what was sunny was in your imagination.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield proposed Monday with the best of intentions that Japan or Burma take the lead in bringing about a "direct confrontation across a peace table" of the United States, China, North Viet Nam and "essential" elements from South Viet Nam.

It was a hopeful thought.

IT WAS followed up by the Johnson administration which Tuesday invited Burma, Japan or other Asian countries to take what initiative they see fit to help arrange a Viet Nam peace conference. The State Department heartily endorsed Mansfield's proposal. But—

The chance that North Viet Nam or Red China would act on Mansfield's idea doesn't look any more likely now, of course, than it did earlier this year when for weeks President Johnson stopped the bombing of North Viet Nam and worked hard to get peace talks going.

In fact, there is probably less reason to think Red China and North Viet Nam would want peace now than then, and not only because of the turmoil inside South Viet Nam.

For, while Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Arthur J. Goldberg, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, were both endorsing Mansfield's suggestion for getting Peking to talk peace, both were laying down tough conditions for dealing with Red China or letting her into the United Nations.

Over the weekend, Rusk's testimony given in closed session before a congressional committee was released, and indicated he didn't expect Red China to abandon its aggressive policy for a generation and that this county would try to stop Peking's aggression whenever it was attempted.

IN HIS 10-pointed policy for dealing with the Red Chinese, he did include some suggestions for trying to improve relations. The United States this month made a try at this. It invited Red China to send some of its scientists and scholars to American universities. The Red Chinese quickly responded with what they thought of this. They called it a fraud.

So all that Rusk said, and he went to great length to say it, and what the Chinese said briefly, was hardly conducive, or a good preliminary, to peace talks on Viet Nam.

And Tuesday Goldberg listed four minimum conditions for permitting Red China to get into the United Nations, while saying the United States would oppose membership for her this year as in all previous years.

The Goldberg conditions would mean Red China, in effect, would have to abandon her present positions. And that's not likely, any time soon.

With Rusk and Goldberg sounding off on Red China like that — just at the moment the Johnson administration is wistfully embracing the Mansfield suggestion which wistfully talked of a peace conference with Red China — seems to stretch the imagination just a little too much.

Unions Operate On Medicare

By Victor Riesel

Some of the nation's militant labor leaders and their welfare specialists are ruefully considering advising their people to stop supporting the government's voluntary medicare program and to pull out, if they're in it.

Victor Riesel

After fighting for it for years, these unionists agree with old Publilius Syrus that there are some remedies worse than the disease.

The union chiefs are angered because they have been cut out of the program incisively by a federal scapel.

They are saying the voluntary cost — $3 a month, $36 a year ($72 for an elderly couple)—is too high.

Furthermore, they charge that doctors' fees will be excessive and that labor should be monitoring these bills — and now can't.

NOT THE LEAST of the labor leaders' anxieties is in being cut off from an influential bloc of people whom the unions have serviced for years — the perpetually increasing, strongly organized, ever - active, constantly vocal "retirees."

In some industries, such as steel and auto, workers are now annually retiring by the scores of thousands.

The union officials have been agitated by the government's decision not to do business with the labor movement in the medicare operation. In effect, this means that only a few major intermediaries will be the go-between linking perhaps 7,100 hospitals, 17,000 old-age homes and institutions and mushrooming nursing homes.

Such organizations as the Blue Cross and insurance companies will take the hospital bills, provide the money and finally the reimbursement from the government.

In all, this is expected to exceed some $3 billion in the first full year.

Thus, despite labor's welfare fund servicing of members over the years, the unions will lose contact with their people once they hit 65 and retire.

This is no minute matter in this land where someone turns 65 every 25 seconds.

THE WORDS "AGED" AND "AGING" are not in their glossary. Many are organized in the labor-led National Council of Senior Citizens, covering more than 2,000 social, religious, welfare, civil rights and union club organizations. It has 2 million members in 70 state and area councils.

This is a mighty potent political force—led by the retired John Edelman, until recently Capitol Hill lobbyist for the Textile Workers' Union. During recent elections the "over-65s" rang doorbells, distributed literature, worked the precincts on Election Day, manned the telephones on "Election Day minus one" — call day—and spent their leisure time stomping their areas for favorite candidates.

"So, we now are chagrined over the medicare development," said Irving Baldinger, vice president for Health and Welfare, District 65, a wholesale, retail and small manufacturing shop union, one of the most militant in the land.

"THE GOVERNMENT now, by shifting the fiscal operations to Blue Cross and insurance companies, separates the retiring membership from the unions. This will cut the final vestiges of contact between the unions and their members because this link has been based on welfare and hospitalization and retirement funds.

"Of course, you're right when you say that will also cut the unions from vital political cadres. The retirees have been doing yeoman work in all the legislative lobbying. They are veteran unionists, instilled in the old tradition and they have the time to help."

Furthermore, says Baldinger, the old comprehensive medical coverage provided by the unions is less expensive. And he reports that many of the old retirees are coming to union headquarters asking, "What do we need the medicare for? We already have coverage."

So, the second stage of the medicare drama is upon us.

Labor's attack will be launched against the right of the physicians to estimate their own bills. And such leaders as Walter Reuther will fight to force such industries as "auto and aerospace" to pay the $36 voluntary yearly charge.

They aim to prove they are mighty powerful medicine men themselves.

Hope In Viet

By David Lawrence

Peking Being Shown Power Of U. S.

Strangely enough, publicity sometimes is difficult for the government to get even though it's important that the American people be informed on the fundamentals of a complex problem such as the relations between the United States and the Communist government on the mainland of China.

David Lawrence

Many experts on both sides of this controversial issue were called to testify before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a couple of weeks ago, and made headlines. The most comprehensive and carefully prepared statement, however, on the whole problem by any government official now has been made public but, because it is belatedly distributed and is 3,500 words long the full text has been printed in only a few newspapers.

The declaration of policy was originally made on March 16 by the secretary of state, Dean Rusk, before a closed session of the Far East subcommittee of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House of Representatives. It has been released only now after having been carefully edited and clarified so that it could be regarded throughout the world as an official pronouncement of American policy.

MR. RUSK DEALS with all the various suggestions and criticisms that have been leveled against the State Department's attitude with respect to Red China. He makes it clear that men who specialize in Chinese history and Communism and highly trained Chinese-language officials in Washington and overseas are regularly consuled by the Department of State and have provided what the secretary says is "the most complete and most accurate picture of Communist China, its leaders, and its policies, available to any non-Communist government in the world."

Secretary Rusk says that, in their struggle with Moscow for leadership of the world Communist movement, the Chinese Communists "appear to have lost ground" and that even their relations with Castro's Cuba have deteriorated. Most important of all, Mr. Rusk emphasizes, is the fact that the Peking government sees at last in Viet Nam what the power of the United States can do to repel an aggression "supported —and actively promoted—by Peking."

THE SPIRIT of the secretary's statement is friendly, and it expresses the hope that sooner or later the Chinese people will influence their government to take a more sensible view of world affairs. Mr. Rusk declares:

"We have searched year after year for some sign that Communist China was ready to renounce the use of force to resolve disputes. We have also searched for some indication that it was ready to abandon its premise that the United States is its prime enemy. The Chinese Communist attitudes and actions have been hostile and rigid. A democracy, such as ours, does not accept rigidity. It seeks solutions to problems, however intractable they may seem."

MR. RUSK POINTS OUT the United States ever since 1954 has been attending international conferences or conferring with diplomatic representatives of the Red China government, and that 129 meetings have taken place directly with the Peking regime through ambassadors stationed in different parts of the world. Mr. Rusk adds:

"Although they have produced almost no tangible results, these conversations have served and still serve useful purposes."

Mr. Rusk frankly concedes that the United States and Peking today are as far apart on matters of fundamental policy as they were 17 years ago—when the Communists came to power in China—and declares that the United States has no intention of abandoning the Nationalist government on Formosa, as demanded by the Red Chinese.

THE SECRETARY discusses the effort of the Peking government to develop nuclear weapons and says that, while China may be doing this to demonstrate symbolically that "China must be reckoned with," these weapons could be used as a means of blackmailing Asian countries into breaking defense alliances with the United States or in an attempt to create a nuclear "balance" in Asia in which the almost unlimited conventional forces of Red China could be used with increased effect.

Mr. Rusk gives a penetrating discussion of the tactics of the Red Chinese in training and indoctrinating leaders of revolutions and furnishing propaganda to support them in countries throughout the world.

In outlining American policy, Mr. Rusk calls for firmness and the maintenance of American principles and ideals. There must be reassurance to Red China, he says, that the United States does not intend to attack the mainland and that, while it will not abandon Formosa, it believes there are many ways by which the peoples of Red China and the United States can work together in the future if restraint is applied by the Peking regime and theories of world conquest are abandoned.

Debate By Student Group Marks Rotary's Meeting

Four members of the Forum Club of East Liverpool High School debated "Resolved: That The Federal Government Should Adopt A Plan Of Compulsory Arbitration In Labor - Management Disputes In Basic Industries" during the luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club at the Travelers Hotel Tuesday.

Presenting the affirmative point of view were Mac Ogilvie and Bob Griffith. Arguing the negative side of the question were Bill Hopper and Dan Dupont.

A PROPOSED practical plan to institute and carry on compulsory arbitration was offered by the affirmative.

The plan would purportedly accomplish the following:

"Correct certain inherent difficulties in the status quo and make use of constructive factors which have been found to be satisfactory.

"Encourage realistic bargaining contrary to the conception that it will hinder it, allowing a maximum of 60 days to settle the dispute before the arbitration would become compulsory.

"Protect the third and most important party, which is the public, which should not be vulnerable to the pressures by unions and management through the use of their respective weapons, the strike and lockout.

"Provide for greater variety and flexibility of response to labor - management disputes, by leaving decisions to impartial parties following reasonable guidelines and weighing public interest.

"Retain unions as a useful bargaining instrument, meanwhile eliminating the economic warfare which has so often been the trademark of collective bargaining in the past.

"Achieve desirable benefits while not significantly altering the structure of labor - management relations."

THE OPPOSITION, attacking the affirmative proposals, claimed that the present collective bargaining system is adequate and that the adoption of compulsory arbitration would not improve labor - management relations.

In addition, the negative speakers pointed out, compulsory arbitration would involve "an outside party not knowing the true nature of the problems, while the present system gets both sides together."

Under compulsory arbitration, it was suggested by Hopper and Dupont, litigation would increase hand in hand, and would only add burdensome technicalities, rather than solve the problems. And, if decisions under the system were unsatisfactory to either party involved, they would be difficult to enforce, it was added.

It was pointed out further that compulsory arbitration has not resulted in improvements in labor - management negotiations in several foreign countries where it has been tried.

The Forum Club faculty advisers, David Wern and Mrs. Dora Bee Poynter, were introduced by Carl F. Pelini, program chairman and principal of the high school.

Mrs. Poynter explained the procedures followed in rating the debaters.

E. R. Chandler presided.

A. T. Knabb of Weirton was a visiting Rotarian.

Joe Coons introduced another guest, Rod Baum, program director at radio station WOHI.

It was announced that a Rotary information meeting for members taken into the local club during the past year will be held tonight at 7:30 at the home of Sidney Porter, with officers and director - chairmen of the "four avenues of service" requested to attend.

Firm Cites Record Earnings And Sales

LATROBE, Pa. (AP)—Record earnings of $717,873 and sales of $11,571,118 for the first quarter of 1966 have been announced by the Latrobe Steel Co.

The firm said Tuesday first quarter earnings of 1965 were $647,098 on sales of $10,078,805. The increase brought dividends from 56 cents a share for a similar period last year up to 61 cents a share.

Road Weight Limit Set By Chester Councilmen

Chester Council authorized City Solicitor James Jordan to draw up an ordinance limiting the total gross weight to five tons for vehicles using Fairview Rd. from 1st St. to the city limits during a meeting Tuesday night at the Council chambers in City Hall.

Such an ordinance had been discussed at the April 6 meeting, but no definite weight limits had been specified. It had been proposed at that time that an ordinance be adopted similar to that now in effect on Virginia Ave.

Previous complaints have been made concerning coal trucks using Fairview Rd. constantly and tearing up the pavement.

In other business, Percy Willison, street department chairman, reported that required maintenance of city streets is being carried out as usual.

Willison also said several 15-minute parking signs must be ordered. Council had directed the street department in the preceding meeting to re-install signs specifying the quarter - hour time limit in front of the state liquor store on Carolina Ave.

Jordan was questioned by Councilman Donald Hissam regarding the penalty for failure to meet the requirements of any franchise granted by the city of Chester and was informed that court action could be taken in such a case.

Hissam did not elaborate on the reasons for his query, remarking that it was for "information only."

Councilman Richard Johnston relayed a complaint of rubbish and trash being dumped on a lot on George St. belonging to W. T. Parsons. He recommended that a "No Dumping" sign be erected at the site.

Chester residents were reminded that annual spring cleanup week will begin next Monday. It again was emphasized that trash must be placed in containers in a convenient pick-up location and that no garbage be included.

Remittances of $1,456.36 were approved, with $1,003.36 in state utility taxes constituting the largest item. Bills totaling $1,547.81 were ordered paid.

In a special meeting immediately following adjournment, Clerk Roy Cashdollar reported that the levy estimate for 1966-67 had been approved by the West Virginia Tax Commissioner, with no changes required.

Tentative approval had been given the budget, totaling $70,829, at the March 15 meeting. The amount is an increase of $5,126 over last year's $65,703.

Final approval then was voted by Council and Cashdollar was instructed to send copies to the state commissioner and auditor and to the Hancock County assessor.

Mayor Harry Abrams, Cashdollar, Jordan and all Council members were present last night.

Legion To Aid Cancer Drive

The "road block" will be held Saturday, April 30, on Pennsylvania Ave., Jack Reardon, chairman, said. He asked members to report at the post home at 7 a. m. to help on the project.

Reports on the County Council meeting last week in Columbiana and the recent Veterans City Council session were given by Densil McKinney and John Ruhe. The financial report was given by Paul Beck.

Leroy Patterson urged members to bring in old or broken cigarette lighters to the post for repair and distribution to hospitalized veterans. It is a project of the Sons of the Legion.

James Wallover, service officer, reported Tom Stefl, Jim Maley and Henderson Crum are hospitalized and that Clarence Garren and Robert Dietz have been discharged.

It was announced that Saturday will be "Party Night" at the post home, with members urged to make up parties for the dance. The "Echos" will play.

Forty - one attended with John Long, commander, presiding. The opening and closing prayers were offered by McKinney, post chaplain. The next meeting will be Monday night.

When shrinking material before cutting to sew, make a solution of four gallons of water and one - fourth teaspoon salt. Soak material for at least an hour. Salt sets the color.

Domer Acquitted By 3 Judges In Murder Retrial

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—A three-judge court acquitted Robert K. Domer today in a retrial of first - degree murder charges against him in the death of an Akron fruit peddler whose body was found in Domer's burned automobile April 23, 1963.

The judges, who began deliberating last Friday afternoon, held that the state failed to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that Howard Franklin Riddle, 54, was alive when the fire started in Domer's car.

Domer, 47-year - old former mortgage broker, was sentenced to death in the electric chair at his first trial, which ended in November, 1963. That trial also was before a three-judge panel.

East End Mishap Injures Child, 4

A 4-year-old child apparently escaped with minor injuries when her father's car was involved in a three-way collision Tuesday at 3:27 p. m. on Pennsylvania Ave. at Walters St. in the Oakland section of East End, police reported.

The mishap involved a 1958 four-door sedan driven by Richard C. Davis, 27, of 1617 Alpha St.; an auto operated by Robert Webb, 24, of 1632 St. George St., and a 1959 two-door sedan driven by Eugene P. Michaels, 25, of 1669 Ohio Ave., officers said.

Christine Davis, 4, a passenger in her father's car, suffered minor injuries, officers said. However, she was not treated at either local hospital.

Police said the drivers reported Michaels drove his auto off Walters St. onto Pennsylvania Ave., causing Davis to swerve his eastbound auto and strike the Webb car, which was halted to make a turn onto Walters St.

Ex-Ohio Policemen Freed In Shoplifting

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP)—A onetime Cleveland Heights, Ohio policeman, former Hemet, Calif., Police Chief Marvin Clements has been freed upon dismissal of shoplifting charges. He resigned the Hemet post Feb. 6 shortly after being accused.

The judge dismissed the case upon recommendation of the district attorney, who presented a psychiatrist's affidavit stating Clements had been unconsciously motivated by anxiety and fear drives and there was "no criminal intent."

Clements came west from Ohio in 1943 after 13 years with an "excellent record" on the Cleveland Heights force.

Dear Friends,

Most families decide in advance upon a doctor in whom they have confidence to call in an emergency. In like manner, it is wise to decide upon a funeral director in whom you can place your confidence in time of need. Select this man in advance, when good judgement is not upset by the stress of your grief.

Respectfully,

Harry L. Martin

Labor Supervisor Named

New Secretary Selected By City Park Commission

H. James Allison of Maine Blvd. Tuesday night was elected secretary of the City Park Commission, replacing Tom Shust, resigned.

Allison, secretary - treasurer of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association, was named at a meeting at the home of Robert Owen of Ohio Ave., a member of the commission. Shust advised the commission he no longer could hold the post because of additional demands on his time as a student at the Kent State University Academic Center.

Joseph Walters, superintendent of Thompson Park, was named the commission's labor supervisor for summer projects.

The commission continued a study of three bids for work on the riverfront in the vicinity of the Broadway wharf, but took no final action on a contract. However, it indicated a contract will be let shortly.

The job calls primarily for excavation to provide for an additional approach to the wharf off the River Rd. to facilitate maneuvers by boaters towing their craft to the launching site. Landscaping work and other beautification also are included.

The additional road will be cut on the upstream side of the wharf. Its completion will enable boaters to drive to the wharf, launch their boats and then leave the site by way of the present brick ramp approach. John Parsons, chairman of the commission, said the bottleneck formed by the lone approach long has been one of the major problems at the wharf.

The commission also discussed a proposed 10-year program of community beautification and recreation and decided to attempt to complete the plans in time for its next meeting May 10 at Mayor George Willshaw's office in City Hall.

The commission reiterated that applications now are being received for use of city - owned riverfront property as private boat dock facilities. The applications are available at Willshaw's office. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne is in charge.

Parsons urged interested persons to obtain applications as soon as possible, pointing out the demand appears to be greater than in 1965.

Others attending the meeting last night were Louis Yanni, the third member of the commission, Councilman James Lowe and Walters.

will have no trouble. The next morning, the problem may disappear at the one home and turn up in the other, he reported.

COUNCILMAN Nunzio S. Lombardozzi commented on a letter in Monday's Review from two residents who asked suggestions in solving the problem. He said he checked with one of the signers and said there was no attempt to discredit the fire department.

The woman was deeply indebted to Lewis and the other firemen for their efforts, Lombardozzi said.

Lewis said he has taken every suggestion, no matter what, in an attempt to get the answer.

Allen Baldwin, Council president, recalled there was a service station at one time in the 15th St. area and suggested that perhaps the gasoline tanks had been left in the ground when the station was abandoned. Lewis said he will check.

Lewis said he also checked the pumping operations at the city sewage disposal plant to see if there was any relation to the problem.

Pirates Make It 6 Of 7

Mays Slams 3rd Homer, Giants Nip Cubs

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Mays is closing the gap on Mel Ott and lowering the boom on Leo Durocher.

Wondrous Willie crashed four hits — including his third home run of the young season — as the San Francisco Giants outlasted Durocher's Chicago Cubs 11-10 Tuesday for their sixth victory in seven games.

The home run — 508th of Mays' 15-year career — left him three short of Ott, the late Giants slugger and National League record-holder. Mays, who belted 52 homers last year, should pass Ott, as well as Ted Williams, 521, and Jimmy Foxx, 534, this season. That would put him in the No. 2 spot on the all-time list behind Babe Ruth's 714 total.

All three of Willie's 1966 blasts have come off Chicago pitchers and two have helped beat Durocher, his former manager and biggest booster. Mays homered in the Giants' 9-1 season-opening victory over the Cubs at San Francisco last week before spoiling Durocher's Chicago debut Tuesday.

The Cubs have dropped three of four to San Francisco and six of seven over-all.

Pittsburgh remained tied with the Giants for the National League lead by pounding Cincinnati 7-3 for its fourth straight. Houston knocked out Don Drysdale and whipped Los Angeles 8-5; Atlanta edged Philadelphia 4-3 and St. Louis trimmed New York 5-2.

The Giants paraded eight pitchers against the Cubs—tying a league record—before Bob Bolin got the last out with the bases loaded in the ninth. Trailing 9-8 in the eighth, San Francisco struck for three runs—one on Mays' third single and two on Don Landrum's two-out double—to pull it out.

The Pirates rocked Cincinnati's Sammy Ellis and two successors for 17 hits, Donn Clendenon leading the way with four singles. Winning pitcher Steve Blass, meanwhile, scattered seven hits, including rookie Tommy Helms' first major league homer. Blass also snapped Vada Pinson's carry-over hitting streak at 31 games.

Drysdale, making his second start for the Dodgers, departed in the middle of Houston's four-run fifth inning uprising that erased a 5-2 Los Angeles lead. Jim Wynn applied the clincher with a two-run homer off reliever Bob Miller in the eighth.

Atlanta starter Wade Blasingame keyed a two-run rally in the third inning with a bunt single and reliever Clay Carroll checked Philadelphia on one hit over the last five innings. Blasingame's safe bunt, singles by Gary Geiger and Ferlipe Alou, a force play and Dick Groat's throwing error produced the deciding runs in the third.

Tim McCarver's bases-loaded triple in a four-run fifth inning rally shot the Cardinals past the Mets as rookie Larry Jaster outpitched New York's Jack Fisher, who has lost 10 straight. Ex-Cardinal Ken Boyer hit a bases-empty homer for the Mets, who dropped back to the 5.00 mark with a 2-2 early-season mark.

Whitfield's 3-Run Homer Stops Yanks

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

A's Edge Minnesota, 3-2

BY MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tommie Agee, whose head was the target of a Venezuelan whisky bottle this winter, may finally be zeroing in on major league pitching.

Agee, making his fifth attempt at gaining a permanent spot in the majors, hit a home run and ignited the winning rally with a single Tuesday night as the Chicago White Sox defeated California 3-1 and spoiled the Anaheim debut of the Angels.

The 23-year-old center fielder hit torridly in spring training but then managed only one hit—a homer—in his first 10 at bats of the season.

Now he has three hits in his last seven trips, indicating he's ready to stay in the starting line-up.

An overzealous fan in Venezuela knocked Agee out of the line-up this past winter. He was playing for Magallanes and in one game let a grounder go through his legs for an error.

"Those fans are very enthusiastic," he explained. "I was up against the fence when the ball went through my legs. The next thing I knew my head was spinning."

In other American League games, Cleveland defeated New York 3-1, Boston downed Detroit 7-0 before losing 6-4, Baltimore outslugged Washington 14-8 and Kansas City edged Minnesota 3-2.

Agee's sixth-inning homer was only the second hit off Angel starter Marcelino Lopez. It brought the White Sox even with the Angels, who had a second-inning homer from Rick Reichardt. Then in the eighth Agee singled, went to second on Reichardt's error and raced home as Don Buford singled Buford later scored on Floyd Robinson's single.

Fred Whitfield's three - run homer in the fourth gave Sam McDowell all the help he needed against New York. The Cleveland left-hander scatteerd seven hits and struck out 12 in winning his second game.

Boston finally won a game in the opener of the doubleheader. The Red Sox, who had lost their first five games, got a two-run single from Bob Tillman and homers from Carl Yastrzemski and George Scott.

In the second game, however, Detroit's Denny McLain held the Red Sox hitless for 5 2-3 innings and drove in two runs in the fifth with a single. Norm Cash rapped a two-run single in the seventh.

Frank Robinson collected three hits, including a two-run homer, and Brooks Robinson drove in three runs with two singles in Baltimore's victory. Curt Blefary added four RBI, three on an eighth-inning homer. Don Blasingame knocked in three Washington runs with a single and a double.

Rookie Chuck Dobson and Lew Krausse stopped Minnesota on six hits while Kansas City took advantage of two dropped fly balls by right fielder Tony Oliva. The pair of two-base errors led to two unearned runs against Camilo Pascual.

Hays Oil Roster Set For 'Classic'

The roster for the Hays Oil Co. was announced today for the first East Liverpool Basketball Classic Friday night.

The roster was not completed since several former Ohio State players may be added before game time Friday.

Playing under the Hays banner will be Dick Reasbeck, a standout at Ohio State during the Jerry Lucas era, who will lead a band of top college players from the Ohio Valley.

Others include Bob Patton, 6-4, who starred at NYU, plus Doug Kinnison, 6-4 of Finley, Floyd Shular 5-8 standout at West Liberty, Rick Saffield of West Liberty, and John Burda, who performed at Omaha University.

Reasbeck was named the most valuable player at the Sisersville tournament in 1965 and was top scorer there this year. That tournament usually draws some of the top college players in West Virginia and Ohio.

The tournament committee also announced that Ken Cunningham, the former Potter star who captained the 1964-65 Cincinnati U. team, has been added to the Mid-Town Hotel squad.

Cunningham was an assistant basketball coach at Kent State this past season where he is enrolled in post graduate work.

Red Mihalik, famed floor official and Eddie Plank of Irwin, Pa. have been assigned to work the championship game while Bill Vinovich Sr. and Bill Vinovich Jr. will work the second game. Bill Westland of Washington, Pa. and Red Angelo of Youngstown will be calling the first game Friday night.

RED MIHALIK
He'll Work Final Game.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING—Sam McDowell, Cleveland, scattered seven hits and struck out 12 in the Indians' 3-1 victory over the New York Yankees.

There are an estimated 40 ways a professional basketball team can lose possession of the ball.

Ohio U. Pitcher Seen Ticketed For Majors

By HAL PARIS
AP Sports Writer

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)— Just about everyone who has seen Tom Murphy pitch will tell you the Ohio University junior is ticketed for major league stardom.

Houston of the National League must be impressed. The Astros drafted the 6-foot-2, 185 pound fireballer last June when Murphy was only a sophomore.

A product of Euclid High School, Murphy's 10-0 record led the Bobcats to the Mid-American Conference title a year ago.

He's 3-0 this season but almost lost his perfect collegiate record in his first start this spring. Clemson battered the star righthander from the mound and led 10-0 but Ohio rallied to force a 12-12 tie, taking Murphy off the hook.

The Bobcats' veteran baseball mentor, Bob Wren, is one of Murphy's staunchest supporters.

"Tom has a fine future. He has the speed and technique to become a pro pitcher. In addition, he's a fierce competitor. He has a major league sinker and his sidearm fastball is just a step behind," Wren noted.

Murphy said he talked with Houston officials "but I still want to play college baseball and finish my education."

Murphy is unlike most young pitcher who throw hard but can't get the ball over the plate. Last year, he struck out 99 and walked only 21 in 92 and 2-3 innings while posting a 2.32 earned run average.

This year, he has whiffed 53 in 36 1-3 innings, walked 17 and shows a 3.46 ERA.

Murphy, who led Euclid to the state scholastic championship in his senior year by beating Steubenville and Lima on consecutive days, exudes confidence.

"You have to have a lot of luck to be 10-0 but I feel I can equal that this year."

Pony League Players To Meet Saturday

Players on Pony League teams are to report for an "all-meet" session Saturday at 5 p. m. at Dopler Field behind East Junior High School. Boys who have not signed up as yet but would like to try out for a team also should report Saturday. The ages are 13 and 14.

Pinson's Streak Stopped At Either 31 Or 4 Games

CINCINNATI (AP) — Vada Pinson went hitless against the Pittsburgh Pirates Tuesday night, ending his consecutive game hitting streak.

But was it a 31-game, two-season streak or a mere four games?

That question has puzzled National statisticians, but Dave Grote, publicity director of the league, said they hope to settle it in case it should come up again.

Grote said the six members of the records committee of the major leagues will be polled Wednesday to decide the issue. It had not arisen in the past whether hitting streak can carry over into another season.

Pinson, Cincinnati Reds outfielder, ended the 1965 season hitting safely in each of the last 27 games. He also hit safely in each of the Reds first four games this year.

Grote and Seymour Siwoff, official statistician of the National League and editor of the Little Red Book of Baseball—the official record book—conferred over the matter and agreed a vote is necessary.

Hank Zureick, publicity director of the Reds, said he checked with publishers of "The Sporting News," and "They said they would recognize Pinson as having batted safely only in 27 games."

The Dodgers hit only 78 home runs last season, their lowest total since 1946 when they hit 55 as the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Pickin Fires 36 To Lead EL Golfers

Bill Pickin fired a 36 to take medalist honors as the East Liverpool Golf team scored its second straight victory, a 10-3 decision over Crestview Tuesday at the Country Club.

Behind Pickin were Bob Hargraves with 44, John Stepien 49, Sid Menough 50 while Harold Putt shot up to a 53. McCoy led Crestview with a 38.

East Liverpool plays Steubenville Big Red today at Steubenville.

Celtics Even Playoff, 1-1

West, Baylor Held To Total Of 31 Points

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics move on to Los Angeles for a meeting with the Lakers tonight in a determined bid to regain the edge in quest of an eighth straight National Basketball Association championship.

The Celtics evened the best-of-seven title series 1-1, overpowering the Lakers 129-109 with a sharp-shooting attack and a tight defense Tuesday night before a sellout crowd of 13,909 at the Garden.

"I'm not happy yet," Boston Coach Red Auerbach said. "They still have an edge on us because the next two games are in Los Angeles. And we're not going to be deluded into thinking things are going to be easy out there."

The Celtics, who blew an 18-point lead and lost 133-129 in overtime in the opener, took the cue from Auerbach, but hopes were high.

"We've got to get one, but we want both," high-scoring John Havlicek said. "We beat them twice on one trip out there during the regular season, so we have a good chance of doing it again."

Larry Siegfried, who scored 16 of his 20 points in 8½ minutes of the second period as Boston roared to a 71-47 halftime lead, called the Celtics' defense the key in the Los Angeles games tonight and Friday.

Los Angeles Coach Fred Schaus was an angry man after the Lakers' whipping. He refused to talk to writers, claiming he was unhappy about stories written after the first game in which the Celtics alleged poor officiating.

The Lakers' Jerry West and Elgin Baylor were held to 18 and 13 points, respectively, after combining for 77 in the opener.

Mrs. Michaels Named Pro Grid Mother Of Year

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The Professional Football Hall of Fame announced today the selection of Mrs. Mary Michaels of Swoyersville, Pa., as "Pro Football Mother of the Year."

Mrs. Michaels, the mother of eight, has two sons who have excelled as pro gridders, including Lou Michaels of the Baltimore Colts.

Walt Michaels played 10 years for the Cleveland Browns before joining the New York Jets of the American Football League in 1963 as an assistant coach.

Lou Michaels led the National Football League in place-kicking in 1962 while with Pittsburgh.

Warner, Helms Turn In Best Rookie Jobs

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Jackie Warner of the California Angels and Tommy Helms of the Cincinnati Reds turned in the best performances among major league rookies in the opening week of the 1966 baseball season.

Warner, a 22-year-old outfielder, slammed a pair of game-winning homers among seven hits in 19 tries for a .368 average. Helms, a 24-year-old second baseman, had a .357 mark on five hits in 14 attempts.

Pitchers Fritz Peterson of the New York Yankees and Don Sutton of the Los Angeles Dodgers also were impressive. Peterson pitched a six-hitter in his only start, defeating Baltimore 3-2. Sutton split two decisions with the Houston Astros, losing 4-2 and winning his first big league game, 6-3 Monday night.

Right-hander Bill Hands of the Chicago Cubs and southpaws Woody Fryman of Pittsburgh and Darold Knowles of Philadelphia, all relievers, scored victories in the opening week. Knowles worked six innings in the Phils' 5-4 triumph over St. Louis.

First baseman Chuck Harrison of Houston and George Kernek of St. Louis, third baseman George Scott of Boston and outfielder Roy White of the Yankees also were among the productive first year players.

Harrison hit .308 with four hits in 13 trips, Kernek had a .286 mark on a 4-for-14 performance, Scott had a triple and four singles in 17 at bats for .294 and White went to bat seven times with three safeties for .429. The averages include Monday's games.

Tobacco Industry's Health 'Never Better'

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The health of the tobacco industry has never been better, says a tobacco company official.

But "amazingly it is under more vicious and more unwarranted attack than ever before in its history," the official said.

Speaking at the annual meeting of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce, Addison Y. Yeaman said Tuesday night there are "forces in this country today who puritanically would deprive us of our freedom of choice to smoke or not to smoke."

Yeaman, vice president and general counsel of Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., said, "The thesis seems to be that anything you enjoy is either sinful or fatal or both."

Detroit Nips Hawks, Eye Final Series

By BERNIE KENNEDY
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The last thing Dean Prentice expected when he suited up for the start of the 1965-66 National Hockey League season was to be playing in the Stanley Cup finals.

Prentice, acquired by Detroit from Boston in a late-season trade, almost single-handedly carried the Red Wings into the Stanley Cup finals with an assist and a pair of dramatic goals in the 3-2 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks Tuesday night.

Prentice tied the score with 3:35 remaining in the game and came back 63 seconds later to get the winner.

"It was the biggest goal I have ever scored in my life," Prentice said. "What made it more important was the fact that it puts me in the finals for the first time in my 14-year career. I don't have to tell you what a thrill that is."

The goals were the third and fourth for Prentice in the series. He scored six goals and added nine assists in 19 regular season games for the Red Wings and entered the playoffs with a career record of two playoff goals and seven assists.

The triumph gave the Red Wings a 4-2 edge in the semifinal series. They will meet Montreal in the first game of the best-of-seven final series in Montreal Sunday afternoon.

Japanese Take First 4 Spots In Marathon

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — The Japanese are turning the Boston A.A. Marathon into a personal duel in unprecedented domination of the annual 26-mile, 385-yard classic.

Combining speed, endurance and strategy, Japan's four-man contingent finished 1-2-3-4, challenging only each other for the final nine miles Tuesday in the 70th Hopkinton-to-Boston run.

Kenji Kimihara faltered after clearing 'Heartbreak Hill," the highest rise on the route, and then tuned on a fabulous stretch sprint to overtake coleaders Seiichiro Sasaki and Tooru Terasawa with half mile left and win by 100 yards.

Kimihara, a 25-year-old steel mill clerk who was married last month, hit the wire in 2:17:11, failing to break the record of 2:16:33 set by Morio Shigematsu, who led Japan to a 1-2-3-5-6 finish last year.

Shigematsu finished ninth and failed with his four 1965 traveling companions to qualify for a return appearance. It was understandable as Kimihara, Sasaki, Terasawa and Kirokazu Okabe ran rivals into the ground.

Sasaki, a 20-year-old newcomer appearing in only his second marathon finished second in 2:17:24, followed by Terasawa in 2:17:46 and Okabe in 2:16:11.

Norman Higgins, a lanky 29-year-old junior college student from Santa Monica, Calif., was the first American finisher, trailing Okabe in 2:18:26. Dave Ellis, a two-mile indoor track star from Toronto, was sixth in 2:19:47.

Beaver Local's 5-Run 4th Tops Midland, 7-3

Trailing 3-2, Beaver Local exploded for five runs in the fourth inning to post a 7-3 victory over Midland Tuesday on the Midland diamond.

Aided by walks, the Beavers only showed three hits in the fourth inning but produced five runs. Singles by Bob Pancake and Rick Derringer drove in two markers in that frame.

Jeff Hall was on the mound for Beaver Local and fanned 15 batters while giving up four hits. He was touched for three runs in the third inning when Al Monaco and Chuck Tepovich slammed triples for Midland's big blows.

Coach Lloyd Stockdale's Beavers now hold a 4-2 record. The Beavers are scheduled to entertain East Liverpool this afternoon.

Salt Lake City Bidding For Olympics In 1972

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROME (AP) — Representatives of Salt Lake City, Utah, seeking the 1972 Winter Olympics, were still hoping today that their missing exhibit would arrive here for the site deliberations.

"It must come," said J. W. Gallivan, publisher of the Salt Lake City Tribune and a member of the city's organizing committee.

The 1,000-pound exhibit was to have arrived in Naples Monday and then brought here for the 72-member International Olympic Committee meeting at which time the site of the 1972 Summer and Winter Games will be chosen.

Gallivan learned that the plane carrying the exhibit had been grounded at the U.S. Air Force Base at Mildenhall, England, by engine trouble.

Later, he was told a flight officer was arranging to fly the exhibit to Milan on a private airliner.

A spokesman for the air base in Mildenhall said the exhibit left the base Tuesday night for a flight from London Airport. But Gallivan said early today he still had no word of its whereabouts.

The IOC will decide by secret ballot next Tuesday the sites for the Games.

Detroit, Madrid, Montreal and Munich, Germany are bidding for the Summer Games, with Munich reportedly holding the inside track.

Along with Salt Lake City, Banff, Canada; Sapporo, Japan; and Lahti, Finland, are seeking the Winter Games. Banff is favored.

Sports Banquet Plans Advanced At Midland High

Mrs. Thomas Wuchina, Mrs. Harry Alston and Mrs. George Tepovich, senior mothers of the Midland Mothers Athletic Association, have been chosen to select trophies to be awarded during the All-Sports banquet May 22.

They were named when the association met at Lincoln High School, with Mrs. Jack Haggerty presiding.

Mrs. Edith Humbert gave the invocation.

Mrs. Norman Vanlier was appointed representative for the holiday basketball tournament.

Mrs. Haggerty announced the association will begin holding indoor carnivals at the Serbian Club each Saturday at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Linda Giordano, Mrs. Resden Samuels and Mrs. Lorenzo McCauley were named to a nominating committee which will present a slate of officers for election at the next regular meeting May 5 at 8 p. m. at the high school.

At the May 5 meeting, the local and time of the sports banquet will be announced.

Mrs. Vanlier, publicity chairman, announced the Junior High basketball team and cheerleaders will be guests of the association at the affair.

Boy Falls 40 Feet, Just Slightly Hurt

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — "Nothing hurts me, nothing hurts me!" exclaimed Timothy Weinberg, 6, who landed on his feet after falling 40 feet from a bridge.

Timothy was trying to walk a railing on the bridge when he fell off Tuesday, police reported. He was treated at a hospital for a scratch on the forehead and a slight abrasion on his left arm.

E. Palestine Tops Beavers In 83-35 Duel

Gary Switzer captured three events to lead East Palestine's cinder team to an 83-35 victory over visiting Beaver Local Tuesday.

Beaver star Larry Roberts also won three events and was beaten for the first time this season in the shot put.

Switzer won the high hurdles in 15.5, took the low hurdles in 21 flat and high jumped 5 feet, 6 inches to win.

Roberts cracked a school record in the discus with a measurement of 138 feet, 2½ inches. He sprinted the 100 in 10.5 and took the 220 in 23.6. Howard Bomberger won the mile in 5:07 for Beaver Local's other first place.

Beaver Local will host Midland's track forces on Friday.

Cubs, Giants Call Deal Off

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — Forget about that Orlando Cepeda for Dick Ellsworth baseball deal.

It would have been a trade which possibly might have benefited both the San Francisco Giants to the point of winning the pennant and the Chicago Cubs to where they might have acquired a slugging star.

But it's all over now according to managers Leo Durocher of the Cubs and Herman Franks of the Giants.

Why? No less reason than the fact a couple of enterprising reporters went on the limb and wrote that such a deal was in the works.

Jim Enright, who covers the Cubs for Chicago's American, previously wrote that such a deal was in the making. And Harry Jupiter of the San Francisco Examiner wrote Tuesday of the possibility of such a deal.

It was Jupiter's story that really blew the lid off. When Horace Stoneham read the story Tuesday, he immediately phoned Franks in Chicago before the game between the Cubs and Giants and said "Cepeda is not to be traded."

After the Giants had outslugged the Cubs 11-10, Franks said "Mr. Stoneham does not like to have newspaper reporters make deals for him."

"Sure, we had been talking about a deal," said Durocher "and we might have made it but you guys couldn't sit tight. Everybody wants to scoop everybody else."

British Space Scientist Says UFOs Are Hoax

BOSTON (AP) — A leading British space scientist, Sir Bernard Lovell, says the current furor in the United States over unidentified flying objects is "incredible nonsense."

"The UFOs," he said Tuesday night, "are natural phenomena or hoaxes. The people who see them must be tremendous emotionalists."

Sir Bernard, director of the Jodrell Bank Observatory and here on a speaking tour, added: "Besides, does it ever occur to them that we have sent up a lot of things and that some of them might be coming back, such as nose cones and rockets? "Could anyone be seeing those?"

The St. Louis Cardinals drew one million fans for the first time when they won the 1946 National League pennant.

Big Red Gains 99½-32½ Track Win Over Tigers

Steubenville Big Red captured 14 of 16 events to post a 99½-32½ track victory over visiting Wellsville Tuesday afternoon.

Wellsville scored in the distance events with Paul Hood winning the two-mile run in 11:16.8 while Bill Reed turned in his best mile time to place first in 4:53.4.

Reed came back later in the 880 and was nipped by an eyelash but again turned in his best time. The winning time was 2:05 while Reed was clocked in 2:05.1. It marked the first time he has lost in the 880 in four meets.

Booth paced Big Red with a 10.5 clocking in the 100 and a solid 52.6 time in the 440. He also won the 220 in 23.6.

Moore turned in an impressive 15.4 time in the high hurdles.

Wellsville, with a 1-3 record, will host Toronto Thursday.

Ring Can Be Rewarding Business, Says Dick Tiger

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP) — Boxing can be a rewarding business, but not many youngsters want to go into it any more because it requires hard work, dedication and sacrifice, middleweight champion Dick Tiger said today.

"Boxing has been very good to me," said the 36-year-old Nigerian at his Grossinger Country Club training camp. "I like to fight and it has helped me become a successful business man.

"I'm looking forward to staying in it a few more years. If I am successful — and I expect to be — in my title defense against Emile Griffith next Monday, then I will try for the light heavyweight title.

"I now have three boys and three girls. I'd like to have three more kids. That means I'll have to fight six more years. I figure I have to fight two years for each kid."

For his defense against Griffith, the welterweight champion, at Madison Square Garden, Tiger has been guaranteed a minimum of $75,000. He has grossed about $500,000 in his career and has invested most of his share of the money.

He owns seven apartment houses and a recently-completed 2,000-seat outdoor movie in Nigeria. He travels in a chauffered limousine to collect his rents.

"Boxing is an investment to me, too," said Tiger. "I invested time to get where I am today and to earn the money I make today in the ring. I hope to make it pay off for a few more years.

"Griffith is a good champion of his class. But I am the middleweight champion and he is the welterweight champion. I expect to be middleweight champion after Monday night."

Tiger is the 2-1 favorite.

New Medical Tests Ordered For Brando

LONDON (AP) — Marlon Brando's personal physician arrived in London early today from New York and after seeing the actor at University Hospital ordered a new series of medical tests.

Brando, 42, was hospitalized Monday after suffering severe abdominal pains while on his way to the movie studios at Pinewood. His condition today was reported little changed.

Brando decided Tuesday to call in Dr. Robert Kositchek of Beverly Hills. The doctor was in New York for a lecture engagement and immediately flew to London.

Twenty-game winner Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals had a 9-9 record against National League first division teams in 1965.

Second Group In Cincy Eyes Grid Squad

CINCINNATI (AP)—A second group is hoping to land a professional football team for Cincinnati.

An organization known as the Greater Cincinnati Football Corp. was given a charter Tuesday by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

An incorporator, Richard H. Ward, said it's "a group of citizens forming a corporation hopeful of bringing a professional football team to Cincinnati.

"That is all I can say at this time."

George R. Drew, named as statutory agent, was not available for comment. He and Ward are law partners here. Another incorporator is Mrs. Grace W. Sales.

Former football coach Paul Brown also heads a corporation trying to get a National Football League team for the city.

It was conjecture that the Greater Cincinnati Football Corp. is attempting to get an American Football League franchise.

Undergoes Surgery

NEW YORK (AP) — Walt Bellamy, 6-foot-11 pro basketball star with the New York Knicks, underwent surgery Tuesday for the removal of cysts on both feet.

The Providence team won only six of 50 games in the National Basketball Association during the 1947-48 season.

Coed Asks Year's Marriage To Escape Dormitory Life

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The Harvard boys are lining up for interviews with a Radcliffe girl who says she wants to get married for one year to escape dormitory life.

Only married students at Radcliffe College can live off campus, so to get around the regulation she has placed this advertisement in the Harvard Crimson:

"One-year marriage? Seems to be the only way for a Cliffe to get out of the dorm. I'll share expenses, am a good cook. Other details? We can work it out. Contact Crimson Box 2000."

So far 13 eager boys have snapped at the offer to try to work out the terms of the proposed one-year marriage.

Richard Appleby, 20, of Great Neck, N.Y., replied by mail, "You sound interesting. Maybe we can work something out."

He said he would wait until he had a chance to meet her before deciding whether to accept the offer.

"The trouble with American marriages is that we don't have enough practical experience. Maybe this sort of thing is just what we need," he said.

The Radcliffe girl declined to identify herself because she didn't want "a whole bunch of nuts calling me."

"I just want to live off campus and earn my degree in history," she said, because its "quieter there and I can get more work done."

She said she has blue eyes, auburn hair and is five feet tall.

"I really want a roommate, not a husband," she said, "but he's got to marry me to satisfy Radcliffe."

Eric Tomb, 20, of Cleveland, Ohio, a junior, also answered the ad in the student newspaper, and commented: "I'd been planning to put an ad in myself for a female roommate. A girl can cook and there might be other fringe benefits, like washing my socks."

Wayne Jones, 21, of Wayne, Mich., said he answered the ad because he wanted to meet a girl with "that kind of a sense of humor."

California City Has First Negro Mayor

MILPITAS, Calif. (AP) — Santa Clara County has its first Negro mayor today — Ben Gross, an auto factory employee who was appointed by the Milpitas City Council.

He led all seven council members in the April 13 election and was appointed by councilmen Tuesday night. Milpitas, a city of 16,000, is north of San Jose.

McIlwain Blasts Rhodes, Reams Raps McIlwain

BARBERTON, Ohio (AP) — Democratic gubernatorial candidates Harry H. McIlwain and Frazier Reams Jr. appeared on the same program in Barberton. McIlwain attacked Gov. James A. Rhodes' education policies, and Reams attacked McIlwain.

McIlwain is "helping the Republican Party by his campaign tactics," Reams charged Tuesday night. "At the very time we are working to unite the party in order to win in the fall, my opponent is trying to divide in the hope of winning."

The state senator from Toledo said that McIlwain charges the state Democratic Party is using campaign funds to finance Reams' campaign.

He added that McIlwain should have checked the party's books before "making unfounded and false charges . . ."

McIlwain, an attorney and state representative from Cincinnati, said earlier on the program that Rhodes' Administration is "drifting from crisis to crisis." He said the Republican administration is failing to adopt long-range plans for education.

Bids Sought For Fairfield School Work

MIDDLETON — Advertising for bids for a $320,000 school improvement program in Fairfield-Waterford School District was approved by the board of education at a special meeting Tuesday night.

Bids for the project will be received by the board until noon May 20 at the Crestview High School.

The board discussed final aspects of the plans and specifications with Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect.

In other action, the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Rae Coulter, art instructor, who is leaving for health reasons.

Contracts were renewed with 21 instructors.

Three applicants for the post of football coach were interviewed and plans to meet with others were made. Supt. Joseph Driscoll said seven applications have been received for the grid job. David Haberger, principal, will not serve as coach next fall.

The board set a special meeting May 3 with Beatty. The next regular meeting will be May 11.

Driver Hurt When Truck Leaves Road

A Michigan trucker was hospitalized Tuesday night after his rig rammed guard rails on the Cannons Mills Hill in one of three district mishaps reported by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Harold Tarno, 38, of Kalamazoo, Mich., was in "satisfactory" condition today at City Hospital with lacerations of the scalp and ear, possible rib fractures, a back injury and abrasions.

Officers said he was headed north down the Route 30 hill when his 1965 truck slid off the highway on a curve, hit guard rails then crossed back over the roadway and struck guard rails on the other side. There was heavy damage to the truck.

Olive G. Reeder, 59, of 128 E. Washington St., Lisbon, was cited after her car and one driven by David Arthur Mangun, 16, of Minerva R.D. collided on Route 172 about four miles west of Route 30 early yesterday afternoon.

The patrol said she was headed west and the other driver east when she rounded a curve left of center and her sedan was struck in the left side by the other auto.

She was charged with driving left of center.

He will implement the commission's policies and work with Horace McLean, planning consultant, in preparation of the comprehensive survey of the county under a federal grant.

Floyd Lower, commission president, reported Madison Township has provided $100 as its share of financial support as a new member of the commission.

Discussion was held on final approval of a brief report on the 1966 activities and for various meetings of subcommittees working on aspects of survey work.

Plane Crash Kills Four In Pennsylvania

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Four men returning from a convention were killed Tuesday in a small plane that plunged into a wooded area near this Southwestern Pennsylvania community.

Police identified the dead as: Pilot Richard Paul Randall, 42, of Rockville, Md., Randall J. Fosselman, 25, of Lanham, Md; Arthur John Harvey, 26, of Linthicum Heights, Md., and Ernest A. Craul of Washington, D.C.

Police said Fosselman, Harvey and Craul were employes of Randall, a partner in the Bay Rand Co. of Eastern Maryland. They said the men were returning home from a convention at Chicago.

Police said the wreckage of the single-engine Bonanza and the bodies were scattered over a 2½ mile area.

The plane, based at Gaithersburg, Md., was en route from Chicago Heights, Ill., to Gaithersburg when it ran into stormy weather over Washington, Washington County Airport officials said.

Airport manager C.R. Breese, who spotted the wreckage from the air, said "It must have just blown apart in the turbulence up there."

Police said the crash occurred about 15 miles southwest of Washington.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Compliments Boost Morale

A settled posture gives the impression of added bulk. You look heavier than you are. The morale boosting effects of spruced - up posture are particularly important for new dieters. Why? You will hear favorable comments when you need them the most.

Ida Jean Kain

Admittedly the first few weeks of dieting, when an unruly appetite is being curbed, can be trying. The rewards of diet are not yet noticeable. At this stage, the words, "You look slimmer", act as a shot of adrenalin. The effect of improved posture is immediately apparent.

—:—

YOUR POSTURE shapes your figure. See for yourself. Take a critical view of you, standing sideways to a full length mirror. Stand in indifferent posture, small of back swayed in, abdomen out, hips trailing. Now, starting with the pelvic girdle, get on the beam.

As you pull firmly up-and-in with abdominal muscles, contract snugly with the hip muscles. Get the knack of tucking hips down and under — under you. The buttock muscles have the important function of helping to keep the pelvic girdle properly centered.

It's wonderful to use your muscles according to nature's design. When you pull slim through the middle of your figure, you force the midsection muscles to take the action. In turn, this action affords continuous exercise. In proper alignment, your posture is self-supporting.

Sit slim. Sit with the back of your hips against the chair back. Pull up and in snugly. Lean against your backbone.

Stand tall. Which muscles do you use to pull up to your full height? Again, it's the middle muscles. At ease, shoulders relaxed. The streamlining muscles are not attached to the shoulder girdle. When the whole control is through the middle, you are free to move beautifully. Hold your head regally high—you'll have it made!

FOR BEAUTIFUL proof of the exercise afforded by good posture read this report:

"I have a condition that does not permit me to exercise, but by 'sitting slim' and standing tall, I have a shapely figure. No bulges, no sagging skin and I have a healthy glow."

The above line is from a reducer who formerly weighed 210 pounds. At the time, she reported she weighed 127 pounds. She is 5' 3" tall and past 50. "I never felt better in my life," was her heartening comment.

The very best exercise is the continuous practice of excellent posture. Try it!

James Locke Jr. Nominated For Merchants' Presidency

James A. Locke Jr., proprietor of a jewelry store at E. 5th St. and Broadway, was nominated without opposition Tuesday to become the new president of the East Liverpool Merchants Association.

Locke heads a slate presented at the ELMA meeting in the Chamber of Commerce office by a nominating committee comprised of Edwin Maloney, Tom Phillips and Maurice Rapport.

Locke now is treasurer of the businessmen's organization. The other unopposed nominees are Charles Averill of the Schiff Shoe Corp., for vice chairman, and Richard B. Sant of Robins & Sant, for treasurer.

Locke would succeed Dayton Allen, who is rounding out his third term. Jack Steinberg is the incumbent vice president. E. R. Chandler is executive secretary by virtue of his post as executive manager of the Chamber.

SELECTION of the slate still is subject to balloting by the members. Ballots are scheduled to go out by mail within a week. Allen named a tellers' committee comprised of Mrs. Connie Hughey, William Kozel and Wayne Snyder to tabulate the results.

The election result is expected to be announced at the next meeting on Tuesday, May 17. New terms begin officially on July 1.

Chandler was instructed to write a letter to Council commending the members for initial action taken Monday night on an ordinance designed to eliminate pigeons, starlings and other "noxious" birds and animals. He also was instructed to commend Council for its action in retaining parking meter fees at the levels at which they have stood for years.

The merchants agreed to buy a supply of brass tokens to put into operation a new parking plan included in Council's meter legislation. It provides for distribution of brass tokens by the ELMA members to their customers.

THE BUSINESSMEN will buy the tokens from the city and distribute them to patrons. When the tokens are removed from meters, they will be purchased again from the city by the businessmen.

The new meter ordinance does not go into effect until May 15.

In other business, the businessmen received a letter from the civic and community affairs committee of the Chamber, explaining a community cleanup drive which it will sponsor in May in cooperation with the city administration.

The businessmen agreed to renovate or replace some of the business district trash receptacles as one facet of their participation in the drive. Several individual members commented they would cooperate in the drive and help in publicizing it.

Max Shoff, chairman of the promotion committee, reported additional plans for a spring festival scheduled in mid-May on an "outdoor living" theme. Merchants said additional plans will be announced later for the event.

Leslie Blumenthal discussed plans for the merchants' annual spring outing on June 8. It will be highlighted by a trip to Pittsburgh by chartered bus to attend a Pirate baseball game.

House Group Seeks To Bar CRS Transfer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans and Southern Democrats in the House try today to block the administration plan to transfer the Community Relations Service from the Commerce to the Justice Department.

The House leadership was counting on down-the-line support from Northern and Western Democrats, and the backing of a handful of Republicans to turn aside a move to prevent the shift. The vote was expected to be fairly close.

The vote is on a resolution to disapprove Reorganization Plan No. 1, which contains the shift. Reorganization plans take effect 60 days after submission to Congress unless one House disapproves. The Senate defeated a disapproval move 42 to 32 April 16. If the resolution to disapprove is defeated in the House, the proposal automatically becomes law.

The Community Relations Service, established by the Civil Rights Act of 1964, mediates and conciliates civil rights disputes. It is headed by Roger Wilkins, 33, a nephew of Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The administration argues that transferring it to the Justice Department will put the CRS with the rest of the government's civil rights machinery. But some opponents say they fear the agency's effectiveness will be diluted if the transfer takes place.

Civil rights leaders were reported to be putting the heat on liberal Democrats and Republicans to swing behind the administration proposal.

Alcoholism Held One Of 4 Major Health Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Health, Education and Welfare Department ranks alcoholism with cancer, heart disease and mental illness as one of the nation's four major health problems.

This was revealed in testimony today before a House Appropriations subcommittee by officials backing a $7 million 1967 budget request for programs on alcoholism.

They said there are nearly 5 million alcoholics in the United States, with 200,000 new cases each year. About 2 million of these are job holders. Officials testified wages lost to alcoholism total some $2.5 billion annually.

There are more than 600 sizes, shapes and styles of metal cans, of which about 500 fall into the non - food category.

Boeing 707s Due Check On Tail Cracks

NEW YORK (AP) — Some hairline cracks in the tail assembly of Boeing 707 jets have been found as airlines around the world checked their 707s on orders from the Boeing Co. and the Federal Aviation Agency.

The checks were ordered after the second fatal crash involving 707s in six months—the March 5 crash of a British Overseas Airways Corp. 707 in Japan in which 124 persons were killed.

The Boeing Co. said in Seattle Tuesday that hairline cracks were found in the plane that crashed in Japan. The cracks had nothing to do with the crash, the company said, and the cause of the tragedy has not been determined definitely.

The Boeing statement said minute cracks were caused by metal fatigue in some of its older planes, but none was dangerous.

A spokesman for Boeing said the inspection order sent to the airlines was "routine," and repair of the cracks is a minor operation.

Contract Talks Break Down; May Hit 3 Merging Papers

NEW YORK (AP)—Bertram W. Powers, president of New York Typographical Local 6, announced a breakdown in contract negotiations today and expressed the opinion that three merging newspapers would be unable to publish next Monday as scheduled.

Asked if the breakdown in the talks meant a strike against the new corporation on its first day of scheduled publication, Powers said: "There'll be no compositors working in the composing room."

No publisher representative was available for comment at the office of the Newspaper Publishers Association of New York City, where Powers reported to newsmen.

The newspapers planning to merge are the Herald Tribune, Journal-American and World-Telegram & Sun.

Powers was asked if the negotiations breakdown meant that there would be no publication of the new papers Monday. "I would say so," he replied.

Powers talked with newsmen following a closed conference with the printer chapel chairmen of the three newspapers. He reported to the chapel chairmen after an eight-hour session with publisher representatives.

He told the newsmen that efforts to reach agreement on a contract broke down over the union's key demand for additional severance pay for printers who lose their jobs in the merger. The printers' current contract provides for three weeks severance pay.

Powers said no further printer negotiations were scheduled with representatives of the new corporation, the World Journal Tribune Inc. He said, however, that his union is "available" for further negotiations.

Spokesmen for all 10 unions in the newspaper industry here have said their members would not work without a contract with the new corporation. Negotiations affecting all 10 unions have been going on.

Ex-Ohio Legislator Claimed In Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ralph Wilkins, 64, a Columbus attorney formerly a state legislator from Lake County and onetime member of the Ohio Tax Commission, died in Mt. Carmel Hospital Tuesday after a long illness.

Survivors include the widow, Ruth. Services will be held here Thursday.

Railroads Reported Losing Millions Since Coal Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Railroads say they have lost millions of dollars since the soft coal strike began 10 days ago.

"The coal industry is our biggest customer," explained a spokesman for the Pennsylvania Railroad Tuesday, who said his firm was hauling only 70 per cent of its normal 100,000 tons of coal per day.

Hundreds of train crewmen have been idled by this strike, he said. During a firemen's strike last month, the Pennsylvania lost $300,000 a day in revenue, he added.

Meanwhile, major industrial users of soft coal, with their 30-day stockpiles, said the strike had not yet affected their operations. Steel companies and electric power companies are big users of coal.

Some 10,000 miners in Kentucky returned to the pits for a day but went on strike again Tuesday, raising the total number on strike to 45,300.

There has been no word of progress at negotiations between the United Mine Workers and the Bituminous Coal Operators Association in Washington.

Miners struck April 11, three days after the union signed a contract with three independent producers. The miners said the signing left other miners without a contract.

Mine operators called the strike illegal, contending the contract was still in effect. On April 12, the union ordered the men back to work after the strike had spread to eight states and idled some 60,000 miners.

The pact signed with the independents granted an immediate $1.32 a day pay raise, eight paid holidays and another $1.00 a day hike next April.

Miners on strike had been getting a daily base pay of $26.25.

This spread is brand new. It tastes exactly like peanut butter and bacon... but there's no bacon in it.

Until now, when you wanted a peanut butter and bacon sandwich you had to fry the bacon until it crisped, drain off the fat, blot up excess drippings with paper towels, crumble the bacon in a mixing bowl, and add a generous amount of Skippy® Peanut Butter. Then you got a large spoon and stirred until it was well mixed and reasonably easy to spread.

Skippy has changed all that. New Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps has taken the work and the mess and the cleaning-up out of making a peanut butter and bacon sandwich.

New Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps has all the crunch, crackle and old-fashioned smokehouse flavor of bacon. But instead of bacon, Skippy has created little crisps of vegetable protein with remarkably true bacon flavor. These, mixed with Skippy, make a tasty spread—perfect for snacks, canapes, and sandwiches, even on meatless days.

So, for all you people who like the taste of a bacon and Skippy sandwich, try them together in new Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps.

Try some and Skippy will send you 25 cents in cash!

We're so sure you'll like the exciting taste of new Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps that we'll send you 25 cents in cash for just buying a jar—any size!

Simply send the label from a jar of Skippy Peanut Butter with Smoky Crisps, and the coupon provided here to Skippy Smoky Crisps, Box 43A, Brooklyn, New York 11202. By return mail, Skippy will send you 25 cents in cash.

This offer is limited to one cash return per family.

the minority stockholders, alleged that the $50,000 salary for Simon was nothing more than a payoff.

The petition for an injunction to stay the April 27 meeting was filed by four shareholders led by Morris Rubin, a Chicago industrialist. Rubin himself is seeking to gain control of Crucible.

Hunter, who was on the stand for almost two hours, revealed his employment contract with Crucible had been revised this year to increase his "minimum" salary from $75,000 to $120,000.

Later in the hearing yesterday, an attorney for Hunt Foods read a statement from Morris in which he said the possibility of a merger with Crucible had not been discussed.

The Morris statement also said Hunter, at the Los Angeles meeting, indicated concern over the possibility the Crucible research program might be affected as a result of a proxy fight.

An attorney for Simon said it is not certain whether he will attend the hearing before Judge Cornelius Harrington.

McNamara

bility, firepower and total strength to the point where now we can have 325,000 men assigned to combat operations in Southeast Asia without calling up the Reserves, without imposing wage-price controls and without material allocations in the civilian economy, and with a military budget in relation to Gross National Product that is lower than in any one of the five years 1960-1964."

While citing U.S. military strength, McNamara said the United States needs the military power represented by its allies and friends around the edge of the Iron Curtain and the Bamboo Curtain.

"It would be unbearably costly to the United States in both money and human resources to maintain a credible force by itself along all of the great arc of forward positions to the west, south and east of the U.S.S.R. and Red China," McNamara said.

Testifying before television cameras in a crowded hearing room, he told the committee that U.S. military aid provides essential arms, training and related support to some 5 million men in allied and other friendly forces "who help us hold the line against aggression" in all forms.

Friendly nations along the forward defense arc contribute more than 3.5 million men to defense, McNamara said.

"Would we seriously consider providing U.S. manpower to replace the deterrent strength of some 3.5 million allied and other friendly fighting men?" McNamara asked.

"The answer, of course, is no."

McNamara contended that it would be "irrational" for the United States to spend over $50 billion a year on its own forces while refusing to help train and equip "our friends who share with us the forward defense job" and whose capabilities are vital to its success.

In the absence of such allies, McNamara said, "the United States either must make up the shortages with U.S. forces or must recast and retrench its foreign policy."

About three-quarters of the total U.S. military aid program is allocated to countries adjacent to Red China and Russia, McNamara said.

The dividend was paid to all stockholders as of record Feb. 28.

The bylaws also were updated, with the changes approved unanimously.

FBI Classes Opened For District Officers

The first of four classes for area law enforcement officers opened this morning at City Hall, with agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as the instructors.

The agenda will be the same for two sessions this afternoon. The classes cover burglary investigation and arrest techniques.

Woman, Girl Report New Flying Object

A Lawrenceville woman and a 15-year-old neighbor girl reported seeing another "unidentified flying object" Tuesday night, which seemingly landed on a nearby farm.

Mrs. Sally Adkins, who moved only four weeks ago to the Conkle farm from East Liverpool, had gone outside about 10:45 to draw some water from a well with Janice LeBlanc, who was visiting her daughter, when they noticed a bright object overhead.

"We both saw it at the same time, and it scared us half to death," Mrs. Adkins said. "It didn't look like an airplane—it was too low, and there was no noise. It was scary. We could see blinking lights on each end that were shaped like stars."

"It seemed to come down and land over in the next farm. We ran into the house and called the sheriff's office. My son and daughter were inside and saw it from the window. The lights faded when it came down, and I was quite sure it landed."

The Hancock County sheriff's office reported this morning that a cruiser had been sent to the vicinity following Mrs. Adkins' call, but that nothing out of the ordinary was found.

2-Way Crash Hurts Driver

A motorist was reported in "good" condition today at Aliquippa Hospital with a back injury suffered in a two - car mishap Tuesday afternoon in Hanover Township, Beaver County.

He is Thomas J. Ford of 6333 Glenview Place, Aliquippa.

In a second accident reported by Pennsylvania State Police at the Chippewa Barracks, David Lee Ashcroft of Hookstown R.D. 1 and Milton R. Rombold of New Brighton R. D. 1 escaped injury.

The mishap was timed at 4:20 p. m. on Route 168 in Shippingport.

Ashcroft was driving west when he noticed construction equipment on the highway. He steered his car to the left, hit an embankment, spun around and struck the front of Rombold's car, which was parked on the south berm, police said. Police reported minor damages in both crashes.

W. Va. Zoo Gets Lion Which Mauled Model

WINFIELD, W. Va. (AP) — The West Virginia Zoo had traded a monkey, a bear and a baby llama for the lion which mauled a model at the International Automobile Show in New York.

"He is not a mean animal," said Zoo Director Bob Matfield. "I think he is going to make a good exhibit-"

Hatfield said the 225-pound lion was bartered away from the 'Tote-'Em-In Zoo, Wilmington, N.C.

The model, Nell Theobald, 22, underwent plastic surgery after the lion with which she had posed scratched and bit her April 8.

Big Window Smashed At Office Of Oil Firm

A big plate glass window valued at more than $100 was broken by a vandal sometime between 10 p. m. Tuesday and 1:17 a. m. today at the Midway Oil Co.'s office on the River Rd., police reported.

Patrolman Jack Strobel discovered the damage early today. Patrolman Orin C. Smith talked later with William Hargraves, the oil terminal manager, who said nothing was amiss when the office closed at 10 last night.

Smith said dirt around the hole in the window indicated it was smashed with a stone. The window overlooks the River Rd., he said.

Dieters Sometimes Own Loudest Critics

NEW YORK (AP) — Dieters are sometimes their own loudest critics.

Letters from dieters to the Duffy Mott food processors include these revelations:

One woman pasted her wedding picture on the refrigerator door;

Another pasted a picture of her husband on it;

One has a sign painted on the refrigerator, warning "Keep Out, Fatty;"

And a man confided that he had cards near the refrigerator, and cupboards and snack bar as well, to say to himself, "You Coward."

When making slipcovers for furniture, make arms separate and make two sets of these for each piece of furniture. This is the part of the slip that is soiled first. By making them this way, the arms can be removed and laundered without laundering the entire slip. Alternate using the sets of arms so they will match the remainder of the cover.

Nobel Prize Winner's Libel Suit Dismissed

NEW YORK (AP) — A State Supreme Court justice has held that a private citizen is limited in recovery of damages for claimed libel if his conduct has made him a public figure and his private life is not defamed.

In a 13-page decision, Justice Samuel J. Silverman extended a landmark 1964 doctrine in which the U.S. Supreme Court applied similar limitations to public officials, in the absence of "actual malice."

Silverman's pronouncement came Tuesday as he dismissed a $1-million libel suit brought by Nobel Prize-winner Linus Pauling against the magazine National Review and its editor, William F. Buckley Jr.

Pauling's lawyer, Michael Levi Matar, said he did not know yet whether he would appeal the decision, which promises to become a legal landmark in its own right if allowed to stand.

Justice Silverman wrote:

"It is clear that if any private citizen has by his conduct made himself a public figure engaged voluntarily in public discussion of matters of grave public concern and controversy, Dr. Pauling has done so. . .

"Dr. Pauling has added the prestige of his reputation to aid the causes in which he believes. I merely hold that by doing so he also limited his legal remedies for any claimed libel of his reputation."

Buckley, a Republican, ran for mayor of New York last year as a Conservative.

Pauling won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1962 and the Nobel Chemistry Prize in 1954. He was among those who early condemned the presence of American personnel in Viet Nam and in 1962 The National Review said of him:

"Are such persons Communists? Some such undoubtedly are, but there is not publicly at hand the full proof, of the kind demanded by the courts, that they are Communists in the total, deliberate, disciplined organizational sense."

Pauling sued for libel. In a trial that began more than six weeks ago, Pauling presented what Silverman said on its face was a case of libel, subject to a decision by a jury of six men and six women.

However, in taking the case away from the jury and dismissing it, Silverman cited the Supreme Court case of Sullivan versus the New York Times. In 1964, the high court nullified a $500,000 libel judgment made to Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan of Montgomery, Ala., against the newspaper.

"The constitutional guarantees (of the First and 14th Amendments)," the Supreme Court held, "require, we think, a federal rule that prohibits a public official from recovering damages for a defamatory falsehood relating to his official conduct unless he proves that the statement was made with 'actual malice' — that is, with knowledge that it was false or with reckless disregard of whether it was false or not."

Silverman cited another case in which, ironically, Pauling himself lost a libel action for $500,000 against the New York Daily News. Referring to the Times doctrine, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals held in a 1964 decision absolving the Daily News of libel:

"Although the public official is the strongest case for the constitutional compulsion of such a privilege, it is questionable whether in principle the decision can be so limited. A candidate for public office would seem an inevitable candidate for extension . . . Once that extension was made, the participant in public debate on an issue of grave public concern would be next in line. . ."

Silverman noted that for 20 years Pauling has publicly expressed public concern about a possible nuclear war, has made more than 750 speeches on the subject, has traveled around the world and pressed his views on heads of state, ambassadors and other public officials.

At Council Meeting

Wellsville OK's Pay Boosts For Police, Firemen

Legislation granting a 5 per cent wage increase to members of the police and fire departments was adopted by Wellsville Council Tuesday night.

Council also overrode a veto by Mayor William Daugherty on legislation granting two paid holidays to members of the departments.

The monthly pay of the chief of each department will be $409.50. Captains of each will receive $388.50, while regular patrolmen or firemen with two or more years continuous service will receive $374.85.

Members of either department with less than two years service, but more than one, will receive $365.93 monthly. Those with less than a year's service will receive $357.

THE INCREASES are retroactive to Jan. 1. Council previously had adopted legislation granting 10 per cent increases, but this was vetoed by the mayor. Daugherty claimed there was not enough money to grant the increases. Other city employes were granted wage increases last year.

The mayor also vetoed legislation designating Christmas and July 4 as paid holidays for members of the two departments, but the legislators overrode his veto last night.

Those who do not work on the two holidays will receive a day's pay, but those who do work will be paid double time.

FOUR OTHER pieces of legislation were approved.

The salary of the dog warden was set at $60 a year to pay for his telephone.

Daylight Saving Time was set from 2 a. m. next Sunday to 2 a. m. Oct. 30.

Parkins will be prohibited on the west side of 12th St. between Main St. and Riverside Ave.

Safety - Service Director Fred Baldasare was authorized to advertise for bids for the purchase of lime, alum, gasoline, coal, slag, salt and blacktop. The Board of Control will award the contracts.

Legislation authorizing the lease of a section of city-owned land along the floodwall at Little Yellow Creek was given the first of three required readings.

Council attempted to adopt the ordinance under suspension of rules, but Council George Lawton objected.

The ordinance said the land is to be used as a boat marina and is to be leased to the highest bidder for a period of 10 years at a sum not less than $300 a year for the first two years. For the remaining years up to the first 10-year period, the sum is to equal 5 per cent of the gross receipts of the marina business, or a minimum of $300.

For years in excess of this, is the lease is renewed, the amount was set at 6 per cent of the gross receipts, or a minimum of $600 a year.

Lawton said he objected because waterfront property is valuable and $300 a year is not enough to charge.

COUNCIL ordered legislation to authorize the safety - service director to advertise for bids on a sewer cleaning machine. The city has had three models demonstrated. The machine is expected to cost about $3,500.

Director Fred Baldasare requested the legislation. There was a question about specifications and he said he will prepare them subject to change or approval by Council.

It was reported Mayor Daugherty had vetoed two sections of the annual appropriation ordinance. One concerns the money designated for a title search on the city - owned building at 12th St. and the other on the proper listing of $1,500 designated for payment of traffic light electric current. Solicitor Delmar T. O'Hara was absent and Council tabled action until he can be contacted.

Councilman Nunzio S. Lombardozzi said he has received several complaints of junked cars being parked in yards and on empty lots. He inquired about the junk yard licensing ordinance and was informed that the police department must enforce the ordinance if the owners do not have a license to dismantle old cars.

Lawton said one-side parking is nedeed the entire length of Riverside Ave. from 3rd to 9th Sts.

This had been discussed previously, but no action taken. Following another discussion, it was referred to the street and light committee for additional study.

Some said it would interfere with parking for the Riverside United Presbyterian Church on Sundays. Lawton said the legislation could be written to provide for parking on both sides on Sunday mornings.

Lawton also commented that the operation of traffic lights should come under the jurisdiction of the police department. The fire chief now services the traffic lights. Council designates how they are to be operated.

LAWTON complained that the traffic lights are left in operation 24 hours and should go on "blinker" at night to allow a better flow of traffic through the community. He said it is done elsewhere and should be done in Wellsville.

Lobardozzi said it would be expensive to install the necessary equipment. The street and light committee was asked to investigate relative to the cost.

The ordinance committee was asked to draft legislation ordered in the future and present it to the solicitor's office so it can contain the necessary legal language.

Council also was asked to set up a procedure for having legislation adopted directed to the mayor for his signature and then returned to the clerk for filing or whatever action is necessary.

The mayor's report for March showed $683.45 collected in fines and fees. The report was on the regulation legal form. At the last meeting Council refused to accept the report, pointing out it was not on the regulation form.

Councilman Glenn Mathess was absent.

The Rev. Melville Wohrley gave the opening prayer. He then informed Council that the Kiwanis Club boys and girls committee had a $100 donation for the playground fund.

Rev. Wohrley asked who should receive the check and was directed to Mrs. Ruth Cooper, chairman of the city Playground Commission.

Senate OKs $1.29 Billion

House Democrats Fight Scranton's Budget Bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Scranton Administration and House majority Democrats were set on a collision course today over the $1.29 billion general appropriations bill.

The bill was unanimously approved by the Republican-controlled Senate Tuesday. It would finance the bulk of state government operations for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Senate action came as the House was locked in a debate over whether to cite for contempt three state police officers who, on orders from the governor, failed to answer subpoenas of a special investigating committee looking into illegal wire-tapping.

The House, overcoming solid Republican opposition, voted 116-88 to issue the contempt citations as a test of whether the governor has the authority to keep state employes under his jurisdiction from testifying before a legislative committee.

The general appropriations bill was received by the House and referred to its Appropriations Committee, headed by Rep. Martin P. Mullen, D-Philadelphia.

Mullen has maintained that the state can keep better control over public funds if appropriations are broken down into several bills rather than lumped in one giant bill. He has indicated he will introduce 40 to 50 major bills, covering the various departments and agencies of state government.

If the House should act in this manner and ignore the Senate-passed bill, a final determination would have to be made by a conference committee composed of members of both chambers.

Last year, House Democrats added some $19 million to the administration's budget. Senate Republicans went along with the increases in a conference committee, but Scranton cut the added appropriations by his power of itemized veto.

Several measures were in position for a final vote in both Houses today, as the General Assembly attempted to clear the decks before taking a three or four week break.

Senate Majority Leader Stanley G. Stroup said he expected the Senate to pass a $50 million school subsidy bill and a measure to give state-related status to the University of Pittsburgh. The House-passed Bituminous Mine Subsidence Bill was also in line for final action.

House majority Democrats planned to caucus to determine if they would move on the Consumer Credit Bill, which would ban excessive and hidden credit charges on installment purchases. A Pitt bill, backed by a $19 million appropriation, was also up for a final vote in the House, but there was no indication that action would be taken.

Holdup Of Bank Contains Movie Script Ingredients

MUSCLE SHOALS, Ala. (AP) — The holdup of the Muscle Shoals National Bank Tuesday contained all the ingredients of a movie script — a 40-minute gunfight, police commandeering a car, and a bandit who shot himself.

Police Chief C. G. Ayers said Grover Lasko Tidwell Jr., 26, Sheffield, Ala., and Johnny Wilson Holland, 27, Tuscumbia, Ala., are being held on federal bank robbery and state robbery charges.

A bank teller started the chain of events by setting off a burglar alarm when one of the gunmen ordered, "Fork over the money."

Ayers and Officer H. H. Smith, about four miles from the bank, were alerted by police radio and began speeding toward town. But their car overheated and stalled.

The police chief flagged down Homer N. Longshore, an insurance man of nearby Florence, and commandeered his car — without explanation.

As the officers approached the bank, located on the main street in this north Alabama city, two masked men started out. The policemen ran toward Tidwell, who shot himself in the hip while attempting to raise his gun. He was captured.

Holland ducked back into the bank and held off officers during a fierce 40-minute gunfight. Bank employes and customers huddled on the floor.

During a lull in the shooting, the officers moved into the bank and found Holland with two bullets in his chest, Ayers said. Lying next to him was a pillow case which the police chief said contained $25,500 in cash.

Paper Reports Fund Shuffling By Rep. Feighan

CLEVELAND (AP) — U. S. Rep. Michael A. Feighan, D-Ohio, has shuffled federal funds allocated to him for payroll purposes and members of his staff apparently to add a Negro executive aide to his staff, the Cleveland Plain Dealer said today.

The newspaper said that according to records of the disbursing office of the House of Representatives in Washington, the Cleveland Democrat cut the salaries of two of his staff members in order to have funds to put Stafford S. Smith, a Cleveland lawyer, on his payroll.

Feighan, who is campaigning for his 14th term in Congress, must seek votes for the first time in five predominantly Negro wards in Cleveland. The wards were added to the 20th District represented by Feighan through redistricting by the Ohio Legislature.

The newspaper said the Washington records indicate that Feighan picked up a total of $682.97 a month to pay Smith by cutting the salaries of two of his staff members. It added that Smith's salary for February was listed as $704.61.

Cleveland Man, 48, Dies During Surgery

CLEVELAND (AP)—Clarence Thomas, 48, Cleveland, died at Mount Siani Hospital during surgery for gunshot wounds he suffered early today.

Lt. Carl Delau, Cleveland homicide chief, said Thomas' wife, Lina, 40, would be charged in the shooting later today.

Probation Given Pair In Robbery Of Area Grocery

LISBON — Two men who pleaded guilty to a 1963 armed robbery of the Smith Service Station and Grocery Store at Cannons Mills have been granted probation.

Judge Joel H. Sharp Monday placed George Robinson, 39, and Alfred L. Bonner, 32, both of Canton on five years probation.

Robert Jordan, 27, of Canton, involved in the robbery, was sentenced to 10 to 15 years in the Ohio Penitentiary Feb. 16 by Judge Sharp, who said the time Jordan is serving on a Pennsylvania robbery may apply on his sentence in Ohio.

Robinson and Bonner were released from a Pennsylvania prison last August. Pennsylvania authorities arrested them and Jordan in Beaver County after a robbery the same night they robbed Smith.

Judge Sharp warned both defendants any failure to meet conditions of probation will result in their being sent to the penitentiary. The court suspended Robinson's drivers license for two years.

Truck Wrecked As Driver Saves Son From Fall

A Hammondsville area man wrecked his pickup truck in his effort to keep his small son from tumbling out a door that flew open as the vehicle rounded a curve on Route 213 three-tenths mile east of Hammondsville Tuesday at 4:50 p. m.

The Wintersville State Highway Patrol said Robert A. Lawrence, 29, of Hammondsville R.D. 1 and his son, Robert, 6, both were injured in the mishap.

Lawrence was driving east, rounding a curve, when the right door of the truck came unlatched. He grabbed the boy to keep him from falling out and lost control of the vehicle. The truck went off the right side of the road, struck a small road marker sign and hit an embankment.

Lawrence suffered abrasions and contusions of the right hand, while his son received abrasions of the hand and right knee. Both were treated by a Wellsville physician.

Claims Cuba Making Strides

Castro Says U.S. Failed In Alliance For Progress

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro said today the United States has failed to make the Alliance for Progress work while Cuba is making economic strides without U.S. aid.

It is true that Cubans have ration books while other Latin-American countries do not, he said, "but this is so because we have taken care of all the people...not fed a small, rich minority."

Castro said the United States has been forced to admit its failure recently by telling Latin-American countries that much of its aid money had been squandered.

Speaking at a rally in Havana's Chaplin Theater marking the fifth anniversary of the Bay of Pigs invasion, Castro claimed Cuba is leading countries of the American continent, including the United States, in education and public health.

Despite this, Cuba still faces many problems, Castro said. There is still poverty and many people are poorly housed.

"Tens of thousands" of miles of road have yet to be constructed, hundreds of thousands of houses have to be built, many power installations are needed, water services have to be improved and industrial and agricultural problems have to be overcome, he said.

Castro said his regime was aiming for "the largest sugar harvest in the history of our country next year." This year's crop will fall short of its original goal of 6½-million tons due to the worst drought in 60 years, he continued, but next year "shall be without a doubt a great agricultural year, possibly the best in the eight years of the revolution."

Imperialism has "infantile illusions" that Cuba's Communist revolution is weak, Castro said, "but never has the revolution been stronger or more united."

Ohio Traffic Mishaps Fatal To Five More

By The Associated Press

A car backing out of a driveway into a rural Trumbull County road was struck broadside by another, resulting in one of Ohio's latest traffic fatalities.

The dead:

Douglas McKinstry, 2, Niles.

Miguel Hernandez, Campbell, Mahoning County.

Mabel L. Graves, 51, Chillicothe.

Walter Watkins, 63, Millersport.

Larry Dean Shafer, 18, Jeffersonville, Fayette County.

The McKinstry child was killed Tuesday evening when a car driven by his father James, 30, was struck broadside in the Trumbull county crash.

Hernandez was killed Tuesday night when, according to police, his car slammed into two parked autos in Youngstown, and then collided with a utility pole.

The Chillicothe woman was killed Tuesday night when her auto collided with one operated by Nancy Kellough, 18, a senior at Paint Valley High School in Brainbridge. The girl, hospitalized with head and face lacerations and bruises, told officers the Graves car was oncoming in the wrong lane and she couldn't avoid the crash.

Watkins was riding with Donald Watkins, 43, of Buckeye Lake on a rural road near Millersport, Fairfield County, when the younger man apparently blacked out at the wheel Tuesday afternoon. The car crossed the road, struck a tree, and Walter Watkins was thrown against the windshield.

A coroner's ruling was awaited in the death Tuesday of Ivan C. Stanton, 77, Toledo, after what seemed a minor collision on a Toledo street. Stanton and the other driver got out to discuss the mishap, then the other man went to telephone police and returned to find Stanton slumped over in his auto. He was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Young Shafer's body was found by his father in the wreckage of a car along a rural road near the victim's home Tuesday night. Sheriff's investigators said the car skidded off the road and slammed into a steel bridge.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I read with interest the letter from an older sister who was unhappy because the second-grade teacher told her little brother there was no Santa Claus. The same thing happened to our little boy, only it was the third-grade teacher who robbed our youngster of his fantasy.

Our son was terribly unhappy when he came home from school. I turned to the World Book Encyclopedia for help and found it.

Santa Claus was a real person. He was the Bishop of Myra, who lived in an ancient town in Turkey around 300 A.D. His name was Saint Nicholas. Saint Nicholas was the kindest and most generous bishop known to the world. He started the practice of giving presents to the needy.

The Dutch called him Sinter Klaus and the settlers brought the custom to the new world. The English picked it up from them. So you see, it isn't a lie after all. — MOTHER OF THREE.

Dear Mother: Thanks for your lovely letter. I'll tell Virginia when she comes in.

Clock 'Kook'

Dear Ann: The woman whose husband is driving her nuts with his self-taught cello screeching has a couple of things going for her. She has to put up with the racket only when he is awake and at home. Then, too, there's a chance he might get tired of the cello and quit. I should have it so good.

My husband has been collecting clocks for 20 years. We have 49 clocks in our house and I can't describe what it is like to live amidst this collection of timepieces. I hear chimes, bells, music, cuckoos and ticking sounds day and night until I think I'll lose my mind.

I never know if the telephone is ringing or if someone is at the door because we have clocks that sound like the door and the phone. I can't use a timer on my stove because we have clocks that sound like that, too.

I'm not writing for advice because I know I must live with my problem and nobody can help me. Thanks for letting me have my say.—HIS WIFE.

Dear Wife: Nobody can say you don't have time on your hands. Sorry about that pun, Hon.

Not A Home

Dear Ann: My mom and dad bought a new house. The house is costing more money than they had planned on spending. Mom and Dad let my aunt and her boy friend move in because they help with expenses. My aunt's boy friend says his wife won't give him a divorce.

The kids at school know my aunt and this man are not married and it's very embarrassing. I told Mom how I felt and she said the main reason she and Dad bought the house was to improve my social standing and that I'm ungrateful.

I was happier when we lived in the old house and I gladly would move back if it meant getting rid of this pair. Am I wrong to feel this way?—HEAD DOWN.

Dear Head: You are not wrong but I doubt that griping about it will help any.

Make no apologies to your friends. Anyone who has sense knows full well you are not responsible for that shameful set-up.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

'Trays' Are Due At Yellow Creek

The traveling tray will be brought to the Yellow Creek grange during its meeting Thursday at 8:30 p. m. by the Wayne Township grange.

The program will be provided by the visiting grange. Lunch will be in the form of a coverdish. Sandwiches will be furnished by the Home Economics Committee, with each member to bring a salad.

On May 4 the Yellow Creek Grange will take the trays to the Greeley Grange. George Patterson, worthy master of the Yellow Creek grange, and his wife, also Mrs. Marcella James and Mrs. Betty Mick attended the traveling trays project at Wayne Township grange last Thursday night. The trays were taken to Wayne by the Bayard Grange. Charles Morlan, deputy master, and Lowell Smith, Pomona master, spoke. Ten granges were represented.

Student enrollment in the colleges and universities of this country now totals about 5.5 million, nearly half a million more than last year.

'Captured' On 2 Ohio Farms

'Flying Objects' Prove To Be Parts Of Balloon

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's men of two counties "captured" a massive flying object on farms 16 miles apart Tuesday, and souvenir - hunters came away with material evidence too.

Hard on the heels of the recent flurry of UFO reports, things began falling from the sky about 5:35 p.m. The mystery this time was short - lived—the objects proved to be parts of an Air Force balloon and instrument package for high-altitude scientific research.

A military spokesman at Holloman AFB, N.M., where the contraption was launched, probably last month, kept some aura of mystification, however, by insisting nature of the research is classified.

A 4,500-pound "payload" apparatus 15 feet tall descended under a red-and-white parachute on Frank Hays' farm a half-mile north of here, with a big balloon attached.

At about the same time, another balloon 150 by 50 yards when stretched flat, fell onto Mrs. Charles Schleich's acreage over in next-door Pickaway County. It had three Devices attached.

Sheriff Don Thompson's Fayette County office here and Sheriff Dwight Radcliff in Circleville were bombarded with calls as the objects wafted down. Deputies, with crowds of sightseers in their wake, converged on the two farms.

The payload, with a group of instruments including radio, cameras and batteries, was towed to a Washington Court House service station.

The Pickaway County portionl including a control box with switches and flashing red light, another box with doors and instruments, and what looked like a cable reel, were brought in by Radcliff.

News photographers were permitted to take pictures of the items while the sheriffs kept the haul in security pending arrival of Air Force personnel to reclaim it today.

Souvenir-grabbers snatched pieces of the nylon-plastic balloons, which were left for the taking.

According to the Air Force at Holloman, the balloon package did just what it was aimed to do—to terminate in the Ohio area.

Council Outlaws Lion As His Owners 'Roar'

PIEDMONT, Calif. (AP) — Simba, Piedmont's friendly neighborhood lion, has been outlawed by the City Council. But not without a roar from his owners.

"He has never done any harm to anyone or any damage in the neighborhood," says Art Quaife, who shares a three-bedroom house with the big cat's co-owner, Pete Clay—and the lion.

Quaife and Clay, young graduate students in mathematics at the nearby University of California Berkeley campus describe the lion with such adjectives as "lovable," "cool" and "lion-hearted."

The Piedmont City Council describes Simba as a potential danger. They passed an ordinance Monday night banning lions throughout Piedmont, a San Francisco East Bay area residential community of 11,000. Simba is the only lion in town.

Simba's owners said the beast is just a babe in the woods—not a ferocious king of the jungle.

"The lion has visited the park, but on a leash and we let no one touch it," Quaife says. "It only runs loose in our house."

The students are retaining a lawyer to fight the ordinance.

Quaife says that Simba, at 8 months, "is too young for a full-throated roar, although he tries." He was born in the Seattle zoo.

Although Simba is frisky and likes to chew up sofas and chair legs, he has nothing else more savage on his mind than gulping down 25 pounds of meat every day, his owners assert.

The owners bought the lion six months ago from a Los Angeles animal supplier for films and circuses. Why?

"It's an experience living with a beast of the jungle and we'll keep him as long as we can," Quaife says. "When we can't, we figure he'll let us know."

The matter came before the City Council after Police Chief Lou Guider reported Simba had jumped a fence and was caught by some high school boys.

Ohio's BUC Council Condemns Two Bills

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The advisory council of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation has gone on record as condemning two bills pending before Congress to change the control of employment service operations.

The seven-member council unanimously adopted a resolution Tuesday calling on members of Ohio's delegations in Congress to defeat the bills. The council said the bills would put all authority of the employment services in operation in the hands of the Secretary of Labor.

High School Dropout Learns Lesson In Viet

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Bob Baker, 19, is one high school dropout who learned a lesson — in Viet Nam.

"I dropped out of school because I thought I knew more than my teachers," Baker said. "And then, in Viet Nam, I found out I didn't."

The purple-heart winner attended Mission Bay High School but did not graduate.

His outfit, the 4th Battalion, 12th Marines, had "adopted" 600 orphans at Hue, South Viet Nam. It was Christmas time and there were no toys.

His letters to his mother, Mrs. Lorraine Baker, and his former English teacher, Mrs. Elizabeth Makinson, resulted in a school-wide drive that sent 400 toys to the orphans.

"It was a great Christmas. The children were appreciative and they spoke in their language, but we knew they were saying 'thank you,'" Baker said.

He came back March 13 and he's been in the hospital ever since with a shattered right arm which doctors said he may never regain full use of. He'll be there for another eight or nine months.

Baker was wounded by a Viet Cong bullet while trying to stop them from blowing up a motor transport truck.

Bob has a new outlook on life, despite the physical handicap.

"I'm going on to college," Baker said. "I wanted to be a surgeon, but I can't because of my arm. I love communications and electronics, so I guess I'll go into that."

The nation's railroads, with about 737,000 workers, are still the largest employers in the transportation industry. There are 270,000 workers employed in local and interurban transport, and 238,000 by airlines.

Wellsville PTA Allocates Funds

The Garfield Parent - Teacher Association of Wellsville Monday night voted $150 for school materials.

An auditing committee of Mrs. Jean Reed, Mrs. Virginia Corsello and Mrs. Terry Pickens was appointed.

An invitation was extended members to attend the Child Counseling Center meeting Thursday night at the Mary Patterson Home, with Dr. Nissim Benado, psychiatrist, as the speaker.

Mrs. Dan Osborne installed the 1966-67 officers aned Miss Jane Morris' fifth grade again received the attendance award, having won it for the entire school year.

Eleven Garfield students, under the direction of John Pangle, band director, played "School Alma Mater," "McNamara's Band," "Jacob's Ladder" and "Liza Jane." The Rev. R. L. Harris of the New Jerusalem Baptist Church led devotions.

Mrs. Ruth Campbell closed the final meeting of the school year with prayer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Marcelline Gooch.

TV Kicks Rating Rat Under Rug

The dust is settling on the TV ranch and Bart Nielsen, the rating king, has convinced the ranch owners that Rex Sparger, the Oklahoma City kid who rustled some of Nielsen's TV home squatters a few weeks ago, just got a lucky draw and it won't happen again.

Hal Humphrey

Nielsen is the luckiest operator the business world has seen in some time. He's put a halter on one of the world's biggest and richest industries, and it doesn't even balk or kick when he leads it to the brink of disaster.

-:-

ALL THREE NETWORKS apparently are content to believe Nielsen when he says young Sparger, the former investigator for the congressional committee probe of ratings three years ago, was the first to breach the security of any of the 1,100 Nielsen homes and influence their choice of viewing.

I asked Julian Goodman, NBC's new president, how it was possible for the network to place any faith in the Nielsen sample after this exposure of direct hanky-panky.

"But this fellow Sparger was caught at it," said Goodman, who seemed to feel this was proof enough that there had been no previous manipulation of Nielsen's chosen few.

EITHER Mr. Goodman is guilty of a naivete not generally found in network presidents or he is a staunch member of the don't-make-waves school. Sparger has said that anyone can find the Nielsen homes if he has the time and money.

He also points out that during the lengthy testimony before the congressional committee in 1963 one producer told the committee it would be worth $10,000 per home to know where the Nielson-wired TV outfits were located.

A highly placed network official rather casually told me two years ago that he knew where 400 of the Nielsen 1,100 homes were, but did not elaborate on what use, if any, he was making of such knowledge. It is a widely known fact in the industry that Nielsen had no systematic rotation of his random sample until after the Washington investigative hearings.

AFTER the Sparger "incident" NBC did ask Mr. Nielsen if he didn't feel that the 56 homes which Sparger reached and tried to influence should not be removed from the sample permanently, and the Nielsen reply was that studies were being made to determine if the viewing habits in those homes had changed in any way which might make them typical.

Sparger himself has said he feels he is not the first one to break the Nielsen security and tamper with the 1100 sample.

When I injected the 1959 quiz show scandal into the conversation with NBC's Goodman, pointing out that everyone in network and ad agency circles was denying the complicity charges until Charles Van Doren confessed to his part in it, Goodman replied that he did not see how that and the Nielsen rumpus could be equated.

THE STRATEGY on the part of both Nielsen and the TV networks is to kick brother Sparger under the rug as some kind of nut who was able to do what he did only because he had special knowledge gained from his experience with the investigating committee during the Washington hearings.

One pertinent question still remains unanswered, however, and that is, would Sparger have been caught had he not operated, quite openly and with the sole purpose of exposing the fallibility of the Nielsen rating sample?

The ad agencies and the networks are asking questions of Nielsen, proving they are concerned, but concerned with what? Networks are like the inverterate gambler who comes to town and wants to know where there is a poker game and is told the only game in town is crooked.

"I DIDN'T ASK if it was crooked, I just asked where it was," he replied, testily.

Most TV producers whose shows are constantly at the mercy of Nielsen's rating game are naturally upset over Sparger and his invasion of it but are so mesmerized by the numbers anyway that they do not know how to react.

"We've got to have something to tell us where we stand," said one such producer, "and I think it's unlikely anything like this happened before."

Students On Rampage At Bowling Green U.

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — While Bowling Green State University officials attempted to identify participants in a midnight Monday rampage for possible suspension, spring-feverish students erupted again Tuesday evening with less devastation.

Water-filled balloons were flung along fraternity row and independent pedestrians and cyclists returned fire, breaking windows. The night before, an estimated 300 youths, all male, stopped trucks, tore up newly planted trees, tore down signs, tore out screens and broke windows.

Portuguese Women Discover New Income

All over Portugal, there is a strong demand for locks and curls.

The hair goes to four Lisbon stores specialized in wigs manufacturing. These wigs may cost from one to two thousand escudos ($35 to $70). A man's natural hair wig isn't worth more than 300 escudos ($10).

Young women with long manes strolling in Lisbon streets frequently report being contacted by hair buyers.

Manufacturers despair at only producing over 50 wigs per month, which they state is a short output, in face of a rising demand. Requests pour in, not only from Portugal, but also from other countries suffering from hair shortage. "The hair of Latin women is much appreciated for its resistance," a manufacturer says.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Proficiency In Reading Aids Student

You may know the school child in the upper grades or high school who reveals great interest, as in science, in conversation at home or in the classroom. However, he may depend upon what he sees or hears for his information. This child may be a very poor reader, seldom opening a book to read for pleasure. His strong interest and information acquired from what he sees in pictures in books or on TV or hears at home or in the classroom is a precious asset. But until he acquires more skill at reading he will be slowed up in his school learning.

Dr. Garry Myers

Indeed, his seeming alertness at school may enable him to get by without his exerting effort at reading. Besides the school child may speak rather glibbly, leading his teacher and parents to overrate his achievement.

-:-

THE MOTHER of five children in Massachusetts writes of her eldest son in the sixth grade:

"He reads very little. He says, 'I can't find books on motors and for construction.' We have a good library in our town and a good school system. However, apparently he can't find what he wants or thinks he needs."

My reply in part:

Why not go with your son to the library and help him find some of the books he wants? Help him also find some good magazines on the newsstand around his interest, subscribing to a few of them for him. Get him numerous mail - order catalogues on mechanical equipment and the like. He may also need some special help in rewarding.

I wish more teachers were alert to this type of child. They should see a strong reason to provide special reading help for him at school and win the parents' effort at securing an able tutor for him.

AN OCCASIONAL parent might be able to give him help personally if sufficiently calm and patient. Investment in a tutor also could bring good dividends. Besides, the parent should require this child to read at least half an hour a day from approved sources, other than his school books.

This child needs home discipline whereby he goes at his homework promptly and faithfully each evening. He's not the kind of child likely to do well at homework in his room all alone. It is fine if one of his parents would have this child do his homework in the parent's presence while he or she is also engaged in serious mental work.

During this study period the parent should read with this child some of his harder text assignments and help him turn each paragraph into a few words of his own.

He also may need supervision at doing his written home assignments with willing help available at spelling words he is not sure about or at looking them up in the dictionary.

THIS CHILD is apt to report on some evenings that he has no homework assignment. In this case, his parent should require him to read for a period as long as his homework usually requires — not from comics or picture books but from carefully chosen books, easy enough for him to read fairly well.

IUE Limits Picketing At Space Center

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Electrical workers limited their picketing today to one gate at this space center as the spotlight on their strike shifted to California.

During the first two days of the strike, the 52 members of the International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, picketed all five entrances. More than 12,000 other union workers passed through the lines, but more than 400 construction men honored them.

The agreement to march at only the south gate to Cape Kennedy enabled the construction workers to return to their jobs, most of them at the Merritt Island moonport.

The strikers, who work on the Air Force Titan 3 space rocket, agreed to the one-gate policy as a temporary measure while the government seeks to mediate their dispute with United Technology Center, a division of United Aircraft Corp.

The stage was set for the single gate policy when UTC instructed its employes, subcontractors and suppliers to use only the south gate.

The strikers are members of California - based Local 1201. About 225 members are picketing UTC facilities in Sunnyvale, Covote and Redwood City, Calif.

Company and union negotiators are scheduled to meet with the Federal Mediation Service in San Francisco today. The contract expired Friday. The main issue is wages. Electricians here make $3.93 an hour.

The union was asking an hourly increase of 16 cents plus a 30-cent differential for working at Cape Kennedy. The company reportedly offered 19 cents and no differential.

Fumes Prove Fatal

Vandals did damage amounting to $1,338,888 to New York City's public schools last year.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 15, 1966.
AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE EXECUTION OF A COOPERATION AGREEMENT WITH THE COLUMBIANA METROPOLITAN HOUSING AUTHORITY.

WHEREAS, the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority proposes to develop and administer a low - rent housing project or projects to consist of approximately 75 dwelling units, and

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of East Liverpool desires to enter into a Cooperation Agreement with the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority, in connection with such project,

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That the Director of Public Service - Safety and Mayor, on behalf of the City of East Liverpool be, and they are hereby authorized to enter into a cooperation agreement with the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority, which agreement shall be exactly as written herein (provided that the blank spaces shall be filled at the time of the signing of said agreement), to wit:

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

This Agreement entered into this day of , 1966, by and between Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority (herein called the "Local Authority") and the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, (herein after called the "Municipality"), witnesseth:

In consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

1. Whenever used in this Agreement:

(a) The term "Project" shall mean any low - rent housing hereafter developed as an entity by the Local Authority with financial assistance of the Public Housing Administration (herein called the "PHA"); excluding, however, any low - rent housing project covered by any contract for loans and annual contributions entered into between the Local Authority and the PHA, or its predecessor agencies, prior to the date of this Agreement.

(b) The term "Taxing Body" shall mean the State or any political subdivision or taxing unit thereof in which a Project is situated and which would have authority to assess or levy real or personal property taxes or to certify such taxes to a taxing body or public officer to be levied for its use and benefit with respect to a Project if it were not exempt from taxation.

(c) The term "Shelter Rent" shall mean the total of all charges to all tenants of a Project for dwelling rents and non dwelling rents (excluding all other income of such Project), less the cost to the local Authority of all dwelling and non-dwelling utilities.

(d) The term "Slum" shall mean any area where dwellings predominate which, by reason of dilapidation, over-crowding, faulty arrangement or design, lack of ventilation, light combination of these factors, or sanitation facilities, or any are detrimental to safety, health, or morals.

1. The Local Authority shall endeavor (a) to secure contract or contracts with the PHA for loans and annual contributions covering one or more Projects comprising approximately 75 units of low - rent housing and (b) to develop and administer such Project or Projects, each of which shall be located within the corporate limits of the Municipality. The obligations of the parties hereto shall apply to each such Project.

3. (a) Under the constitution and statutes of the State of Ohio all Projects are exempt from all real and personal property taxes levied or imposed by any Taxing Body. With respect to any Project, so long as either (i) such Project is owned by a public body or governmental agency and is used for low-rent housing purposes, or (ii) any contract between the Local Authority and the PHA for loans or annual contributions, or both, in connection with such Project remains in force and effect, or (iii) any bonds issued in connection with such Project or any monies due to the PHA in connection with such Project remain unpaid, whichever period is the longest, the Municipality agrees that it will not levy or impose any real or personal property taxes upon such Project or upon the Local Authority with respect thereto. During such period, the Local Authority shall make annual payments (herein called "Payments in Lieu of Taxes") in lieu of such taxes and in payment for the public services and facilities furnished from time to time without other cost or charge for or with respect to such Project.

(b) Each such annual Payment in Lieu of Taxes shall be made after the end of the fiscal year established for such Project, and shall be in an amount equal to either (1) ten percent (10%) of the Shelter Rent actually collected but in no event to exceed ten percent (10%) of the Shelter Rent charged by the Local Authority in respect to such Project during such fiscal year or (ii) the amount permitted to be paid by applicable state law in effect on the date such payment is made, whichever amount is the lower.

(c) The County Treasurer shall distribute the Payments in Lieu of Taxes among the Taxing Bodies in the proportion which the real property taxes which would have been paid to each Taxing Body for such year if the Project were not exempt from taxation bears to the total real property taxes which would have been paid to all of the Taxing Bodies for such year if the Project were not exempt from taxation; Provided, however, That no payment for any year shall be made to any Taxing Body in excess of the amount of the real property taxes which would have been paid to such Taxing Body for such year if the Project were not exempt from taxation.

(d) Upon failure of the Local Authority to make any Payment in Lieu of Taxes, no lien against any Project or assets of the Local Authority shall attach, nor shall any interest or penalties accrue or attach on account thereof.

4. The Municipality agrees that, subsequent to the date of initiation (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended) of each Project and within five years after the completion thereof, or such further period as may be approved by the PHA, there has been or will be elimination (as approved by the PHA) by demolition, condemnation, effective closing, or compulsory repair or improvement, of unsafe or insanitary dwelling units situated in the locality or metropolitan area in which such Project is located, substantially equal in number to the number of newly constructed dwelling units provided by such Project; Provided, That, where more than one family is living in an unsafe or insanitary dwelling unit, the elimination of such unit shall count as the elimination of units equal to the number of families accommodated therein; and Provided, further, That this paragraph 4 shall not apply in the case of (i) any Project developed on the site of a Slum cleared subsequent to July 15, 1949, and that the dwelling units eliminated by the clearance of the site of such Project shall not be counted as elimination for any other Project or any other low - rent housing project, or (ii) any Project located in a rural nonfarm area.

5. During the period commencing with the date of the acquisition of any part of the site or sites of any Project and continuing so long as either (i) such Project is owned by a public body or governmental agency and is used for low-rent housing purposes, or (ii) any contract between the Local Authority and the PHA for loans or annual contributions, or both, in connection with such Project remains in force and effect, or (iii) any bonds issued in connection with such Project or any monies due to the PHA in connection with such Project remain unpaid, whichever period is the longest, the Municipality without cost or charge to the Local Authority or the tenants of such Project (other than the Payments in Lieu of Taxes) shall:

(a) Furnish or cause to be furnished to the Local Authority and the tenants of such Project public services and facilities of the same character and to the same extent as are furnished from time to time without cost or charge to other dwellings and inhabitants in the Municipality;

(b) Vacate such streets, roads, and alleys within the area of such Project as may be necessary in the development thereof, and convey without charge to the Local Authority such interest as the Municipality may have in such vacated areas; and, in so far as it is lawfully able to do so without cost or expense to the Local Authority or to the Municipality, cause to be removed from such vacated areas, in so far as it may be necessary, all public or private utility lines and equipment;

(c) In so far as the Municipality may lawfully do so, (i) grant such deviations from the building code of the Municipality as the Local Authority shall determine to be reasonable and necessary to promote economy and efficiency in the development and administration of such Project, and at the same time safeguard health and safety, and (ii) make such changes in any zoning of the site and surrounding territory of such Project as are reasonable and necessary for the development and protection of such Project; and the surrounding territory;

(d) Accept grants or easements necessary for the development of such Project; and

(e) Cooperate with the Local Authority by such other lawful action or ways as the Municipality and the Local Authority may find necessary in connection with the development and administration of such Project.

6. In respect to any Project the Municipality further agrees that within a reasonable time after receipt of a written request therefor from the Local Authority:

(a) It will accept the dedication of all interior streets, roads, alleys, and adjacent sidewalks within the area of such Project, together with all storm and sanitary sewer mains in such dedicated areas, after the Local Authority, at its own expense, has completed the grading, improvement, paving, and installation thereof in accordance with specifications acceptable to the Municipality;

(b) It will accept necessary dedications of land for, and will grade, improve, pave, and provide sidewalks for, all streets bounding such Project or necessary to provide adequate access thereto (in consideration whereof the Local Authority shall pay to the Municipality such amount as would be assessed against the Project site for such work if the such site were privately owned); and

(c) It will provide or cause to be provided, water mains, and storm and sanitary sewer mains (provided the same are reasonably accessible to said Project location) leading to such Project and serving the bounding streets thereof, in consideration whereof the Local Authority shall pay to the Municipality such amount as would be assessed against the Project site for such work if such site were privately owned.

7. If by reason of the Municipality's failure or refusal to furnish or cause to be furnished any public services or facilities which it has agreed hereunder to furnish or to cause to be furnished to the Local Authority or to the tenants of any Project the Local Authority incurs any expense to obtain such services or facilities then the Local Authority may deduct the amount of such expense from any Payments in Lieu of Taxes due or to become due to the Municipality in respect to any Project or any other low - rent housing projects owned or operated by the Local Authority.

8. No cooperation agreement heretofore entered into between the Municipality and the Local Authority shall be construed to apply to any Project covered by this Agreement.

9. So long as any contract between the Local Authority and the PHA for loans (including preliminary loans) or annual contributions, or both, in connection with any Project remains in force and effect, or so long as any bonds issued in connection with any Project or any monies due to the PHA in connection with any Project remain unpaid, this Agreement shall not be abrogated, changed, or modified without the consent of the PHA. The priviliges and obligations of the Municipality hereunder shall remain in full force and effect with respect to each Project so long as the beneficial title to such Project is held by the Local Authority or by any other public body or governmental agency, including the PHA, authorized by law to engate in the development or administration of low-rent housing projects. If at any time the beneficial title to, or possession of, any Project is held by such other public body or governmental agency, including the PHA, the provisions hereof shall insure to the benefit of and may be enforced by, such other public body or governmental agency, including the PHA.

SECTION 2. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect at the earliest period allowed by law. Said emergency lies in the fact that adequate low cost housing rental units are in short supply in the City of East Liverpool and that because of this the housing is inadequate and has depreciated and is not satisfactory to meet the living conditions and this action is therefore necessary to preserve the public peace, health and safety of the citizens of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio.

Junior Editors Quiz on VIOLIN VARNISH

QUESTION: Did the varnish used by the old-time violin makers really improve their tone?

ANSWER: It is usually agreed that the wonderful violins made in the 1500's in the town of Cremona in Italy are the finest ever created. They possess that remarkable singing tone which seems able to express the performer's inmost feelings—a quality which has led to the description of the violin as the king of instruments. There has been much discussion as to why these violins are so brilliant and sensitive in tone. Such makers as the three generations of the Amati family; Antonio Stradivari, the prince of all violin makers, and Strad's close rival, Giuseppe Guarnieri, used only the finest of woods in their instruments and worked over them with the most exacting care.

It is generally believed that the varnish used on a violin has an effect of its tone. When exactly the right varnish is used on wood which has seasoned for exactly the right time, the varnish will penetrate the pores of the wood and preserve its elasticity, that is, its ability to vibrate. Some think the old makers had a secret varnish recipe which has been lost, but others feel that it was the warm sunny climate of Italy, in which violin varnish could be slowly and evenly dried, which was responsible for the beautiful tone of the old violins.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Try to color the scene of Strad working in his violin shop to get the effect of sunlight pouring in, and then get this golden glow on the Stradivarius violin the girl is playing.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, April 20, the 110th day of 1966. There are 255 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1889, Adolf Hitler was born.

On this date in 753 B.C. Romulus founded the city of Rome; according to legend he yoked a bullock and a heifer to a plow, marked the boundary and built a wall.

In 1662, a Royal Charter was granted to Connecticut — with boundaries extending all the way to the Pacific.

In 1917, Turkey broke off diplomatic relations with the United States.

In 1946, American military authorities in Berlin announced the arrest of 10 Germans who had sold fake penicillin.

Ten years ago — A federal court of appeals ruled that James Kutcher, a legless war veteran, had been improperly discharged as a loyalty risk from his job as a clerk with the Veterans Administration.

Five years ago — It was clear that the Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba was a failure — but President Kennedy said: "We do not intend to abandon Cuba to the Communists."

One year ago — Secretary of Defense McNamara said U.S. military aid to South Viet Nam would go up from $207 million to $330 million a year.

Contempt Resolutions Adopted

Strategy Battle Marks Explosive Police Probe

HARRISBURG (AP) — The bitter confrontation between House Democrats and the Republican Scranton Administration in the explosive state police wiretapping case boils down today to a battle of strategy.

The Democratic House, in an historic vote Tuesday, overrode solid Republican opposition to adopt a contempt resolution citing three state police officers for failure to testify before a special committee on allegations of wiretapping by the department.

No one could recall the House ever before citing someone for contempt for refusal to appear before a legislative investigating committee.

The vote was 110-88 on straight party lines, with one exception.

Rep. Erwin L. Murray, Cameron, running as an independent candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, joined the minority GOP in opposing the resolution.

Named in the citation were former Deputy Commissioner Frank McKetta, Det. Albert G. Pfadt and Trooper Leo Moran.

The committee, however, reversed its original decision to make former Commissioner E. Wilson Purdy a party to the citations after being informed by his attorneys that he would answer any questions.

Purdy and the other three officers, on orders from Gov. Scranton, failed to appear at a March 15 hearing to be questioned about testimony by Det. Angelo Carcaci that he had used illegal wiretaps.

Scranton said the committee had no authority to investigate the executive branch.

Committee Chairman Ronald G. Lench, D-Beaver, told the House that the intent of the citations was to test Scranton's position in the courts.

Lench repeatedly emphasized that the Democratic majority on the committee had no intention of placing the officers in jail.

The House speaker could order anyone cited by the chamber for contempt be taken into custody.

However, the contempt resolution specifically prohibited Speaker Robert K. Hamilton, D-Beaver, from following through on the resolution until authorized to do so by a second vote in a separate action.

Republicans maintained, however, as did the Justice Department a week ago, that the matter could not go before the courts until the men were incarcerated.

Almost lost in the intensity of the issue was the resumption of committee hearings today on an administration request for 600 more troopers.

People In News

BOSTON (AP) — Roberta Bingay, a 23-year-old blonde from San Diego, Calif., became the first woman to complete the 26-mile Boston marathon.

The Boston Athletic Association, which sponsors the 70-year-old annual Patriot's Day run from Hopkinton to Boston, doesn't accept women entries but Mrs. Bingay went along anyway, just for kicks.

She crossed the finish line Tuesday after the first 100 in a respectable 3 hours and 20 minutes.

LONDON (AP) — A chef who worked three years for Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon is under court orders not to divulge information about what he observed in Kensington Palace.

The royal couple was granted temporary orders by a London court Tuesday against the chef, Leo Groden, 52.

The action was started after an article appeared last week about the royal couple in a German magazine. An aide to the princess said it could only have been written by somebody in Groden's position.

Tuesday she became the first person to be named "Heroine of the Year" by the Girls Club of America.

Gloria suffered burns on her hands, face, arms and legs and is still convalescing.

Miss Clark hasn't stopped sneezing, however, for 16 weeks and doctors seem to be at a loss to help her.

"June's nose is starting to itch," said her father. "We're hoping that's a good sign."

It's a nice sign, said Krogstad, a real estate developer, "but I don't know who put it up. I've never thought of running for anything."

231 Negroes Enrolled At U. Of California

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — There are 231 American Negroes enrolled among the 26,063 students at the University of California's Berkeley campus. Another 76 are Mexican-Americans.

The counts were disclosed in a survey ordered by Chancellor Roger W. Heyns, who told the Academic Senate he hopes to increase minority enrollment.

Sun Oil Reports Earnings Up 42%

FELTONVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Sun Oil Co. has reported first-quarter 1966 earnings of $22,001,000, a 42 per cent increase from a year ago.

At their annual meeting Tuesday, stockholders voted a four-for-three stock split, authorizing the issuance of 5,762,648 additional shares. This brings the total of outstanding common shares to 23,050,591.

The stock distribution is scheduled for June 10 and to stockholders of record on April 29.

The quarterly earnings were equivalent to $1.31 a share, Sun Oil reported in a preliminary statement. First quarter revenues were $240,732,000, compared with $233,621,000 a year ago, the statement said.

Long Illness Fatal

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Dr. Vaino Tanner, 85, Finland's foreign minister during the 1939-40 winter war with Russia, died Tuesday after a long illness. Tanner, premier in 1926-27, was long a leader of the Social Democrats.
